Third War Loan Drive Launched Today

TWO WEEKS' EXTRA PAY IS BUYING GUIDE

Marion Workers Join in Start of Nationwide Campaign for 15 Billions.

"Back the attack with an extra two weeks' pay."

That's the campaign cry in Marion county today as hundreds of men and women workers in the county's "duration organization" to handle war bond sales swung into action on the Third War Loan drive.

Today is the starting time for the Third War Loan drive throughout the nation. Nationally, the goal is 15 billion dollars, exclusive of the bank purchases. For Ohio, the goal is $693,000,000 or 4.65 per cent of the national total. Marion county's share is $2,829,000.

These figures were cited today by Robert E. White, Marion county drive chairman, as the reasons why donors are being asked to invest an extra two weeks' pay in bonds this month. Acknowledging this is a "big order" for every one, the chairman pointed out that while extra purchases on that basis definitely will strain the pocketbooks of most prospective purchasers, it nevertheless is the basis that must be used if the county is to be assured of success.

"And after all," he added, "our sacrifices here at home wouldn't compare with those of the boys at the front even if we had to invest an entire month's extra pay in bonds to put this drive over."

Appeal To All

The chairman today directed public appeals to both the workers and the buying public. He asked the workers both to make substantial purchases and to cover their territory thoroughly this month so that every possible bond dollar may be brought to bear on the big Marion county quota—the biggest drive of its kind ever undertaken in the county. His appeal to the public was simply, "Buy—buy till it hurts."

Declaring he has been impressed by the enthusiasm shown during the drive preparations, he voiced the hope that this would continue throughout the month and that the public at large would feel the need to make their relatives and friends in service proud of Marion county by backing them up with war bond purchases.

Types of Bonds Listed

Bonds to be sold in the Third War Loan drive are U. S. War Bonds, Series E; U. S. Savings Bonds, Series F; U. S. Savings Bonds, Series G; Treasury Savings Notes, Series C; 2½ per cent Treasury Bonds of 1964-69; 2 per cent Treasury Bonds of 1951-53; 1½ per cent certificates of indebtedness, Series E-1944. No Time Now To Celebrate, President Says

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9—Axis Italy has fallen. Berlin and Tokyo are surely next, but the task ahead is "bigger and tougher" and Americans should fend off any rocking chair philosophy that the war is won.

In this vein, President Roosevelt touched off the third war bond drive for $15,000,000,000 last night—a drive that was planned weeks ahead and hit by remarkable coincidence almost the exact time of Italy's unconditional surrender.

Anticipating a wave of optimism, the President warned in a

RUSSIA SENDS NAZIS REELING

Germans Retreat Toward Last Line of Defense on Soviet Territory.

By The Associated Press

MOSCOW, Sept. 9—With the great steel center of Stalino and the rich Donets industrial basin safely in their grasp, two victorious Red armies are sending the Nazis fleeing toward the Dnieper river, their last main line of defense on Russian territory.

Front dispatches placed the Russian troops less than 70 miles from the Dnieper at some points, but the Germans were exposed to a greater immediate danger in the region to the south of Stalino. Here their entire southern flank now was exposed to the terrific pressure of the Russian armored offensive, from Mariupol on the Sea of Azov westward to the isthmus of Perekop and the gateway to the Crimea.

600-Mile Front Ablaze

The entire 600-mile front stretching as far north as Smolensk was ablaze as the mighty Russian war machine plunged ahead to rid Russian soil of the invaders before the heavy autumnal rains—already beginning—make mobile warfare impossible.

Red divisions, slashing west of captured Konotop in the north, stormed into Borzna, 100 miles from Kiev, key Nazi strongpoint on the center of the Dnieper defense wall.

More than 200 towns were scooped up in the Soviet drive from Kharkov north of Smolensk yesterday, the Moscow midnight communique reported.

On the Bryansk front, Red army troops outflanked German forces holding Nvlya, 30 miles north of Bryansk, and stormed into the town to kill 1,200 of the enemy and capture 25 guns, the bulletin said.

NAZI TROOPS OCCUPY NORTH, CENTRAL ITALY

Hitler Reported To Have Decided on Defensive Stand Along Po.

By The Associated Press

LONDON, Sept 9—A German military spokesman announced today that "north and central Italy have been occupied by German troops," a Berlin broadcast said today.

"In so far as the occupation had not been carried out already it has now been done. In most towns of Italy the armed forces allowed those forces to be disarmed (by Germans) without offering resistance," declared the broadcast, still quoting the Nazi military spokesman.

At the same time the spokesman declared allied troops which landed Tuesday on the Gulf of Eufemia, north of Palmi, had been enveloped by German troops and "their annihilation was imminent Wednesday evening."

Reuters reported from Stockholm that Adolf Hitler held a war council today at which it was decided to reinforce the German Po line in northern Italy and fight to the last man.

Nazis Try Confusion

At the same time the German radio began issuing a stream of orders, apparently for the purpose of confusing the Italians and contradicting earlier steps taken by the surrendering Badoglio regime in Italy.

One Berlin broadcast said a new "Italian Fascist government" set up by the Germans in Germany had issued orders to Italian ships to remain in continental ports and that the "air force would bomb ships which sail for North Africa," as was ordered by Marshal Badoglio yesterday.

A second announcement from the Berlin radio said a military spokesman declared that "conformably with an agreement with the Italian army in Greece, Italian troops after surrendering heavy material, will withdraw to the coast and there await further instructions from the German high command."

(Another Nazi-controlled radio in Norway said Nazi and Croat puppet police units occupied the Italian legation and consulate in Zagreb, Croatia, last night after disarming all Italian forces in the city and arresting leading Italian personalities. U. S. government monitors reported.)

Troops Patrol Berlin

Meanwhile, however, a Reuters dispatch from Stockholm indicated the Italian peace was having repercussions in Germany itself. The dispatch said that blackshirted elite guards were patrolling the streets of Berlin and that Swedish correspondents reported an atmosphere of tension prevailed in the city.

Germany tried to put a frail prop under capitulated Italy by announcing fomation of a "national Fascist government in the name of Mussolini, which by all possible means will bring Italy out of the war with her honor intact and her future life assured."

This announcement over the Berlin radio foreshadowed bloody

Your Invasion Day!

Today is THIRD WAR LOAN opening day—Today is INVASION DAY for you. Today you land from the assault boats. Today you make a run for the target. Today you crouch in a foxhole and pray to God that the folks back home are safe. Today you lunge forward in a tank against enemy artillery fire. Invasion! Bloody invasion!

No, you are not going to face the peril in person. Your son, your brother, your husband and your friends will take care of that job. You can—you must penetrate Axis territory with your dollars. Someone you hold near and dear may fall, if you are not awake to your new invasion responsibilities. The Third War Loan is a hurry call from the Commander-in-chief for every last penny and dollar for War Bonds to double and triple the supplies for our invasion armies. Back the attack with a minimum of an EXTRA $100 War Bond today. That's the very least you can do to help your fighting boy.

Smashing Air Attack Led by U. S. Forts

By The Associated Press

LONDON, Sept. 9—With allied forces swarming into the heart of fallen Italy, the greatest formations of American and British bombers ever hurled across the channel by daylight pounded today at enemy ports and air fields in northern France, carrying into the eighth consecutive day an aerial offensive which may form the final prelude to invasion from the west.

The unprecedented assault, launched in conjunction with the largest invasion exercises ever seen in the channel, climaxed 18 hours of steady pounding of Hitler's Atlantic fortifications during which not a single allied plane was downed by German air units.

Eight naval vessels and coast artillery were among the prime targets of the vast bombardment accompanying the invasion rehearsal which kept the French coastline alight all night with bomb bursts and anti-aircraft fire and rattled windows this morning six miles inland from the English shore.

"It was like the battle of Britain the other way around," said a resident on the Dover-Folkestone road.

Raids Start Rumors

The huge combined operations workout started a flurry of rumors that the invasion of France finally was under way.

American Flying Fortresses and Thunderbolt fighters spearheaded the widespread daylight attacks. First announcements from U. S. headquarters and the British air ministry said American heavy bombers and RAF fighter-bombers struck at air fields and other targets in northern France while fighter squadrons patrolled the channel and swept over France—all with remarkably light opposition.

Attack Started Yesterday

American and British medium and light bombers started off the intensified attack late yesterday, sowing devastation around Boulogne. An authoritative announcement said Marauders of the U. S. 8th air force hit the same targets in daylight today.

The Berlin radio quoted the German news agency DNB as saying Paris was the targets of at least a portion of the huge bomb-

INVADERS MEET NAZI OPPOSITION IN FIERCE BATTLE

By The Associated Press

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, Sept. 9—A powerful American and British force under U. S. Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark swept ashore in the vicinity of Naples, a third of the way up the Italian boot, at 4 a. m. today.

It was immediately engaged by German forces fighting fiercely in the midst of the chaos of Italy's unconditional surrender, but allied headquarters announced that operations were going according to plan and that prisoners already had been taken.

At the same time it was announced that waves of Fying Fortresses, striking six hours before the Armistice with Italy yesterday, had wiped out German military headquarters in Italy with a terrific half-hour bombing of Frascati, 12 miles outside Rome.

Official reports said the town, nearly every building of which was occupied by German officers, was levelled. The town, with a population of about 12,000, is famous for its wine.

(The mention of General Clark indicated the American Fifth army, long held in reserve in North Africa, now has gone into action. Under Clark's command, it has been training steadily in North Africa for just such a venture into the European continent.)

The headquarters war bulletin also announced new landings early Wednesday at Vibo Valentia in the Gulf of Eufemia, some 30 miles north of Palmi where the British Eighth army was reported sweeping up along the Calabrian coast.

The landing on the Gulf of Eufemia, first mentioned yesterday in a Berlin broadcast, was completed "after light opposition," the communique said, and was carried out in royal naval vessels supported by warships.

8th Army Advances

Canadian and British troops of the Eighth army "have moved forward considerably," the bulletin announced, adding that the lateral road from Locri, on the east coast, to Gioia, eight miles above Palmi on the west coast, "is now in our hands."

The Eighth army thus has blocked off the entire southern end of the Italian toe.

In that area, too, the allied forces had made first contact with German forces after the greater part of a week of virtually no opposition. The communique said "German prisoners have been taken."

"Heavy bombers of the Northwest African air forces made a concentrated attack on the German headquaters at Frascati," an air communique said.

Frascati is located a dozen miles southeast of Rome. The entire town, taken over by the Germans some time ago, was reported leveled by Flying Fortresses.

In this attack, the communique said there was strong opposition by enemy fighters and 28 were destroyed.

Medium bombers attacked bridges and roads at Trebisacce, Lauria and Sapri yesterday. All are in southernmost Italy.

Night bombers continued their attacks on German communications on the mainland, hitting Benevento, Metaponto, Potenza, Battipaglia, Eboli and Foria.

In the day and night air operations, 33 enemy aircraft were reported destroyed against an allied loss of six.

(Swiss radio reports said allied planes in hundreds were descending on newly obtained Italian airfields.

(Aside from the landings in the Naples area, rumors flew of allied landings all along the western coast of the Italian peninsula.

(Reports reaching Madrid said United Nations troops were at Ostia, port of Rome, and also at Leghorn, important port and naval base, 160 miles north of Rome.

(Stockholm newspapers said the allies were attacking from bridgeheads at two other places on both sides of Rome, at Civitavecchia, 40 miles north of the capital, and at Gaeta, 75 miles to the south of the capital. These reports said landing attempts also were under way at Genoa.

(Illustrating the apparent confusion inside Italy, Madrid reports said battles had taken place between Germans and Italians throughout the Po region, and that Italian army leaders had rushed troops to leading airports in the Milan region to hold the bases against German seizure.

(The Germans claimed that Italian troops in Greece had been ordered to surrender their arms and

SCHOOL REGISTRATION SCHEDULED FRIDAY

Principals Arrange To Meet All New Pupils.

(More about schools on Pages 10 and 13)

The Marion public schools will open at 9 a. m. Monday morning, with teachers' meetings in the various buildings from 8 to 9 a. m., Superintendent E. E. Holt announced today.

Pupils who have moved to Marion since the close of school in June this year, and who are planning to enter junior and senior high school this term, are asked to go to the building they will attend, tomorrow, Friday, to confer with the principal regarding their school work. The principals will be at Harding High school, Central, Vernon and Edison Junior High schools throughout the day, Mr. Holt announces.

School will be held a half-day only on Monday, and, with the exception of first grade children who will attend only half-day sessions throughout the first week, full day sessions thereafter.

Classes will convene at 8:45 a. m. each morning in the junior and senior high schools, and at 9 a. m. in the elementary grades, Mr. Holt announces.

Italy's Collapse Seen As Heavy Blow To Nazis

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9—American troops which landed in considerable force under the command of Lieutenant General Mark W. Clark in the vicinity of Naples are in contact with German forces and making satisfactory progress, Secretary of War Stimson reported today.

Capitulation of Italian armed forces is a hard blow to the enemy, Stimson told his press conference, but can not be interpreted as meaning that the Italian peninsula can be occupied without considerable hard fighting.

As many as 15 to 20 German divisions may be in Italy, he said, and this is a larger force than any met by the allies in Tunisia or Sicily.

Furthermore, he added, the Germans can increase their strength in Italy if they choose.

Two Enemies Still Stand

While the Italian surrender climaxed a week of good news from all war fronts, said the secretary, the two chief enemies—Germany and Japan—are still fighting and "there is no justification for any assurance that they will be soon eliminated."

"It will be time to celebrate when they are defeated," he added.

(Stimson's press conference statements were in concert with the announcement from allied headquarters in North Afrika that a powerful American and British force had surged ashore at Naples and were immediately engaged by the Germans.)

MARION SEAMAN REPORTED MISSING

George Berridge in Merchant Marine, Lost at Sea.

A telegram Saturday informed Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Berridge of 636 North Main street that their son, George Berridge of the Merchant Marines, is missing at sea.

The message was signed by the company for which Berridge shipped, the United Fruit Co., and read as follows: "We deeply regret to inform you on advice of the war shipping administration that your son, George Berridge, has been reported missing at sea since the 19th of August."

The last word from Berridge, a letter written from Huston, Tex., was received by Miss Evelyn McClarey of 562 Toledo avenue July 21, and that is believed to be around the time he shipped. Previously he had been out about four weeks on another trip. He was an oiler in the engine room.

Berridge, who enlisted in April, received his training at Sheepshead Bay, N. Y. Previously he had worked at a construction plant in Arizona, and prior to that was employed by the Scioto Ordnance Plant.

A letter from the chaplain of Sheepshead Bay to the family after Berridge had left on his first assignment stated that he was a "very good boy" and had attended holy communion and confession before he left. Berridge attended St. Mary High school.

London Sees Slight Chance for Nazis To Hold in Italy

By The Associated Press

LONDON, Sept. 9—Bottled in northern Italy and harassed by a vengeful population the German army's 300,000 occupation troops in Italy stand little chance of successfully resisting Allied forces which were reported from neutral quarters to be landing all along the shin of the Italian boot.

That is the prevailing military opinion in London where it was almost unanimously forecast that the Allied Mediterranean forces will roll back the Germans to the very gates of the fatherland and proceed to the reduction of the southeastern outer bastion of the European fortress in the Balkans.

Amid jubilation over the greatest of Anglo-American military victories there can be no doubt, however, that the Germans, with whom Allied forces have already made contact in the Naples area, would exert desperate and bloody effort to stall off inevitable defeat.

No Easy Mark

"This last phase of the Italian war may provide one of the most difficult tasks which the Allied troops have yet had to face" said the London Evening Standard.

There was serious doubt expressed in London, however, that with German shortages of troops, supplies and transport that the German army would be able to undertake any more than a delaying action on the Po river line which is the strongest natural defense barrier across northern Italy where the Axis final forces are concentrated.

Scioto Ordnance Plant Opens War Loan Drive with Rally

The September Third War Loan drive was given an enthusiastic send-off today by officials and employes at the Scioto Ordnance Plant.

At 4 o'clock this afternoon administration area employes assembled in front of the administration building to hear talks by Major Philip E. Gruber, commanding officer, J. M. Livermore, factory manager, and Harold J. Grigsby, chairman of the payroll savings division of the Marion county war finance committee.

This morning W. E. Orcutt, principal of Central Junior High school, spoke before men and women at four of the plant production lines at the plant and similar talks were made by Mr. Grigsby at five locations this afternoon.

Although no other rallies of this nature are scheduled today or tomorrow in Marion plants, the speakers bureau of the Marion county war finance committee said programs would be held in many Marion industrial plants later this month.

MARION FIGHTER GETS AIR MEDAL

Staff Sgt. James E. Pierce Gets Award in North Africa.

Mrs. James E. Pierce of 147 North Main street received word last week from her husband, Staff Sgt. James E. Pierce, turret gunner on a B-26 plane, that he had been awarded the air medal for the first five missions in which he participated.

Sgt. Pierce, son of Mr. and Mrs. David O. Pierce of 726 North State street, has been stationed in North Africa since the first of May. He was inducted into the Army June 17, 1942, and attended an aerial gunners' school in Panama City, Fla., later receiving his wings in Louisiana.

Sgt. Pierce recently shot down a German Messerschmitt 109 and The Star published an account of this feat on Aug. 17.

Fall of Italy To Free Allied Prisoners

LONDON, Sept. 9—Italy's surrender is expected to mean freedom for approximately 2,000 Americans and 70,000 British and Canadian troops and civilians now held as Italian prisoners of war.

"It can be assumed that the unconditional surrender accepted by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower took into account the immediate release of all prisoners of war and that they will reach allied hands as soon as conditions allow," the British war office said today.

Seabee Recruiter And Examiners To Visit City Monday

SEABEE'S OFFICIAL EMBLEM

Lt. M. R. Norton of the Toledo naval recruiting station will again visit the Marion recruiting substation next Monday from 12:30 to 3:30 p. m., accompanied by naval physical examiners, Chief John J. Dugan, Marion recruiter, announced today.

Accompanying Lt. Norton will be Lt. C. M. Creswell and Pharmacist's Mate Second Class M. P. Brinda.

Men between the ages of 17 and 50 who are interested in enlisting in the Seabees, the Navy's construction battalion, are being urged to investigate the possibilities by the Seabees. Lt. Norton is at the office each Monday from 12:30 to 3:30 p. m. to interview prospective applicants.

Still urgently needed are many skilled construction workers, but it is no longer necessary to have a skilled trade to qualify, Chief Dugan reported. Many men are accepted for specialized training before being assigned to active duty.

Applicants who expect to contact Lt. Norton next Monday are urged to bring letters of recommendations in which is stated their experience and other qualifications for ratings.

Men who will be unable to visit the recruiting substation, at 196 South Main street Monday may contact Chief Dugan or one of his two aids at the station later.

Upper Sandusky Council Acts on Closing Hours

Special to The Star

UPPER SANDUSKY, Sept. 9—An ordinance to regulate the hours for the sale of beer and liquors in Upper Sandusky has been given its first reading by city council. It would prohibit the sale of malt beverages, wines, and spirituous liquors between the hours of 11 p. m. and 6 a. m. weekdays, and from midnight Saturday to 6 a. m. Monday.

The wording of the proposed ordinance not only makes it unlawful to sell but also would stop giving away, bartering or permitting the consumption of intoxicants. Mild wines and 3.2 beer would also be included in the prohibition since the ordinance specifically mentions "beverage containing one-half of one per cent or more of alcohol by weight."

Legislation is also being prepared by council for presentation to voters in November of the three mill levy to raise funds for operating expenses and for a one-mill park levy for an additional five years. Both of these are continuations of levies now in effect.

If a stranger gets off something like—I hear they've sunk the S. S. Bumblebee," Sam starts panning him down. Did he really see it? Where's the evidence?

Because Sam knows, like the rest of us that nine-tenths of the "inside news" passed around by careless folk isn't rumor—it's lies planted by the Axis to destroy American morale.

Take those rumors about drinking in our Army Camps. Actual, official facts from the government's own Office of War Information showed there wasn't a shred of truth in 'em.

The boys enjoy a glass of beer occasionally—same as a lot of us do!

And from where I sit, they're proving themselves the healthiest, best-disciplined bunch of fighting men in history, like the OWI report stated. That's good enough for me.

"Just send us ... fireworks!"

. . . and we'll blow the world back together again!"

YOU'RE IN THIS INVASION

Uncle Sam needs fifteen billion dollars this month to pay for this INVASION . . . and there's no EASY way out. If it's not a sacrifice, you're not doing your part. Ten per cent isn't enough—15 per cent isn't enough. Nothing is enough but EVERY LAST CENT you can turn into fighting War Bonds.

You're not GIVING, American—you're INVESTING. Investing in freedom, investing in a clear conscience, investing for future security.

And it's the SOUNDEST investment anyone ever MADE.

You'll have the money to educate your children, build your home, buy a car, when the war is won.

The LEAST every American can do to put this over is to buy an extra $100 bond in September.. But that's the LEAST — you can be counted on to do your level BEST, can't you? Get those War bonds NOW — Buy them out of income, buy them with idle accumulated money — BUT BUY ALL YOU CAN — and be glad to be an American!

Top-Flight Pacer To Race For Cameras at Meet in Marion

Gay Song, 1:59¾ Mark Holder, To Be in Sept. 16-18 Program at Fairgrounds.

...g a big shot in harness ...leagues, is expected ...e of the ou...anding ...s in Frank M. Foster's ...ning Marion harness ... the year—the spe... to be held at the ... ...ny fairground track ... connection with the ...matic scenes in the ...ture production of ...ew Chamberlain's Sat... Post serial, "The ... Filly."

...per, secretary of the ...ting association and ... the Houghton Sulky ...ed today that By ...iami, Okla., horseman ... training Gay Song ...er of other champion trotters and pacers, has reserved stall space for five horses.

Gay Song, a full brother to this year's Hambletonian victor, Volo Song, is as fast on the pace as his famous brother is on the trot. The Gay one owns a pacing record of 1:59¾, which puts him in the same company with Little Pat, Chief Counsel and the late Senator Abbe. Volo Song, pride of the Bronx's Bill Strang stable, boasts a two-year-old trotting mark of 2:03½ and a much lower time as a three-year-old. The Song stars are Volomite-sired.

Race Manager Foster has arranged a bang up card for the movie meeting. Topping the three-day card of 11 early closing events are trotting events for two and three-year-olds each carrying a purse of $1,000. Supplementary attractions are 12 and 15 trots and a 12 pace.

Undoubtedly some of the finest trotting and pacing stars of this year will be in the fairground colony which will appear before the cameras of Hollywood's 20th-Century Fox studios. Coming immediately before the Grand Circuit meeting at Delaware, the meeting will attract a considerable number of the trotting and pacing gentry. The meeting's only competition will be the fair at Carthage, near Cincinnati. While undoubtedly some of the big-name stables will be staked for the Carthage program, many others not staked there will slip to Marion for the snappy three day program.

Due Here Sept. 15

Around Sept. 15 the vanguard of a company of from 75 to 85 Hollywood movie folk will arrive in Marion. The full company will be on hand by the opening of the meeting a week from today.

At present part of the company is at the county fairgrounds in Fremont for the filming of supporting scenes in the $2,000,000 technicolor production. The principal part of the film, however, will be made at the Marion county fairground. Other scenes will be made at the famous Walnut Hall farm at Donerail, Ky., and still other scenes will be photographed at the colorful and historic estate of the late James McGowan near Mt. Sterling.

Railroad Mishaps Increase Under Heavy War Strain

By JAMES MARLOW AND GEORGE ZIELKE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9—The federal bureau of investigation (FBI) says not one railroad wreck in this country since Pearl Harbor has been caused by enemy sabotage. But—

Any other cause can be just as fatal and the accidents are increasing with shocking emphasis.

The Monday night wreck near Philadelphia of the Congressional Limited, which killed at least 78 persons and was the worst disaster of its kind since 1918, has been blamed so far on a burned-out axle part.

Less than 12 hours later—on Tuesday morning—three crewmen of the 20th Century Limited were killed when the locomotive boiler exploded near Canastota, N. Y., and more than half the cars plowed off the track.

That was the second New York accident in eight days. On Aug. 30 a Lackawanna limited, crashing into a freight engine that protruded on the main line from a siding, killed at least 28 persons near Wayland, N. Y.

And last May, 14 persons were killed when a Pennsylvania railroad train, rounding a bend, sailed off the tracks. This accident was attributed to excessive speed.

At least 120 persons were killed in these wrecks, by far the greater number of them passengers, while interstate commerce commission (ICC) records show only 38 passengers were killed in train wrecks in 1942 and 18 in 1941.

War stresses may be a great underlying factor in railroad accidents now—mechanical failures, defective equipment, inexperienced workers, and even recklessness induced by over-strain—but as the fatalities mount the war stresses are increasing, not diminishing.

This much is certain: Railroads now are carrying more passengers and traveling more miles than at any time in their history and with less equipment for civilians, which means greater passenger loads per train.

This heavy passenger load in turn boosts the death and injured toll when wrecks occur.

The American Association of Railroad (AAR) points out that, although railroad accidents may increase with increased miles traveled by trains, the proportion of accidents to miles traveled may remain stable.

KIWI—is U. S. war slang descriptive of a non flying officer of the air corps. It is the name of a wingless bird of New Zealand. A man with no savings following the war is likely to be as helpless as a kiwi. Save yours—Buy War Bonds regularly plus a $100.00 extra Invasion Bond in September.

Inspection Held At United Grange Meeting

E. A. Williams, deputy master, conducted annual inspection of United Grange Tuesday evening at the Claridon school and later gave a talk on Grange work. Preceding the meeting, the men, losers in an attendance contest, served refreshments. J. E. Ruth was in charge of the program which included an accordion solo by Patty Kramer, paper by Mrs. Nellie Kline and Mrs. Grace Hartland, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Lavery, vocal duet, accompanied by Mrs. Chester Fulton. Mr. Corwin, state examiner, gave a talk followed by a quiz conducted by Helen Lawrence. Paul Lawrence told of modern methods of dairying. A talk was given by Lawrence Kline on canning for the school. A farm auction will be conducted Sept. 28 and North African pictures will be shown. Ellis Epley, Ralph Hess, Gail Van Gordon and Merle Lashley will be in charge.

OPA Puts Ceiling on Bottled Wines

Retailers of wines, cordials, liquors and specialties have been notified by OPA district price officers that a new maximum price regulation, No. 446, has recently been adopted covering their sales, OPA officials in Columbus said today.

This regulation applies only to sales by package, not sales by the drink. Prices are fixed by applying a percentage mark-up to the cost of the liquor and examples are given of the method of figuring ceilings.

Retailers of wine are required to choose one of three methods of marking their ceiling price, either by label on the container, use of sales slip receipt, or display in the store of the various brands with a sign giving legal prices. Customers must be given a receipt upon request.

Prices of beer and ale are not affected by this regulation.

Detached Coupons Not Acceptable for Purchase of Shoes

Marion retail shoe dealers have received orders from the office of price administration compelling them to post in a conspicuous place a notice reading to the effect that shoe ration coupons detached from the ration-book will not be accepted.

In explaining the new amendment OPA said that detached shoe stamps have been limited to mail order purchases only. Some customers and dealers, however, have assumed the practice of selecting shoes at a store and mailing a loose stamp for delivery as a proper mail order transaction. Under terms of the new provision a shoe stamp may be detached from a ration book and sent with a mail order only if the customer, or his agent, does not personally select or receive the shoes at the supplier's place of business.

In cases where a shoe stamp has been inadvertently detached from the ration book, the amended regulation provides that such a stamp may be exchanged at a local rationing board for a special shoe stamp valid for any type of shoe with any dealer.

Women's Group Meets at Home in Hepburn

Special to The Star

HEPBURN — Mrs. Clyde Robinson, assisted by Mrs. John Cosner, were hostesses to the W. S. C. S. of the Methodist church at the Robinson home Thursday. Guests were Mrs. Idella Schuttie of Kenton, Mrs. Frank Burbaugh and Mrs. Don Greer.

...parently had reached ... announced by the ... to throw the Ger... in a full-scale de... Thousands of Ger... including some of the ... pouring into Italy in recent weeks in anticipation of an Italian surrender.

As a consequence the allied forces in the Mediterranean under Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower were presented with a gargantuan task that may speed up a decision of the whole European war.

Announcement of the new landing only 135 miles short of Rome came just 12 hours after news of the armistice which took Italy out of the axis partnership and left Germany and Japan as the two major enemies of the United Nations.

The communique said:

"Further operations have started on the Italian mainland in the vicinity of Naples."

Thus was told in official language the start of a momentous sequel to yesterday's dramatic surrender, the series of allied Mediterranean victories—Tunisia, Pantelleria, Sicily—and the first mainland landings last Friday by the British Eighth army.

Some 200 miles separate the new zone of operations from the Calabrian coast where the British and Canadians have pushed steadily ahead in a "walk-over" occupation of the Italian toe.

Naples, in peacetime a city of almost 1,000,000 population, has been battered often and hard by the allied air arm, and warships stole in some weeks ago to bombard enemy shipping and military installations in the harbor.

Important Rail Link

It is a vital link in Italy's north-south railway communications and one of that country's major ports.

A broadcast, believed to come from Vienna, called Marshal Pietro Badoglio a "traitor," said "a pure and strong Italy, a Fascist Italy, will arise," and added that "a Fascist government acting in the name of Mussolini has been formed."

The broadcast called on Italian soldiers either to join the Germans and continue to resist or go home and await orders.

There is no exact information on the strength of the German forces in Italy, but it is believed to be far more powerful than any the allied armies yet have engaged on the southern front and that it is many times the size of what the Germans had in Africa and Sicily.

Some of Hitler's toughest divisions were reported moved into north Italy. Italy apparently is to become the scene of a titantic struggle.

INVESTMENT FOR VICTORY

THE Third War Loan is a sacred cause that of your common cause, your loyalty to take it, and a true measure of your own flesh and blood, the men you have sent off to do the fighting for you.

It combines all of those aspects because it comes at a time when Americans for it are doggedly seeking a decision on the battlefield, after a long cost of life itself.

It asks Counter-attacking Attack Another valley. Another beach. Another one gone. Yes, get ready. You are in the But you keep going. That is what. That is why a war correspondent writes the story of your boys, your neighbors, your friends are going through at this moment.

But what about you? Is it all a matter attack, attack for you on the home front? Are you fighting a battle to save every penny possible for War Bonds to back up your fighting men?

There's hardly a comparison between your greatest sacrifice on the spending front and the sacrifices in blood and sweat of one of your soldiers, sailors, fliers, marines or coast guardsmen.

Your Government comes to you and says: 'Lend me your money now when I need it to protect you against your enemies, and I'll pay you back with interest a little later when the men who would murder, rob and enslave you are destroyed.'

It takes a country like ours to make such an offer.

Your Government is putting its objective before you in two ways. First in big round numbers like 15 billion dollars. Secondly, but more important, it puts the Third War Loan matter up to you in a purely personal way. It wants you to invest a minimum of an extra $100 in War Bonds—more if you can. If you are one of those Americans who have not yet bought a War Bond—or even a War Stamp—it asks you to get busy in a hurry. There's something awfully wrong with you if you won't put an extra rifle, or an extra clip of bullets into the hands of your men on the battlefield.

There's another thing to keep in mind as you face the test of the Third War Loan. You may grumble about the cost of living. That's not the thing really to worry about. The Nazis and the Japs have let you know that your chief worry is living itself if they can get their hands on you. If you want one graphic example, remember those American martyrs of Jimmy Doolittle's Tokyo raid.

The slogan, "Back the Attack—With War Bonds," is addressed to you. Rich man, poor man, worker, boss, man, woman or child—you all have something to lend to your country at a time like this.

Other Americans are crouching in assault boats at this moment. Waiting for INVASION! It's assault time for you too.

End of the Axis

ITALY'S unconditional surrender is the end of the axis. Germany continues the war alone in Europe, except for inconsequential help from its dunning third-power satellites. The end of the war is measurably closer.

In this country Italy's collapse was taken for granted when Mussolini's government was thrown out. The conclusion of the Italian people's distressing experience in the war merely was delayed by the Badoglio regime.

There is no elation over Italy's defeat—only elation over the lightening of the task being performed in the Mediterranean by United States soldiers and their Allies. Many lives will be saved on both sides.

As far as the continuing war with Germany is concerned, there may be no immediate effect due to withdrawal of the main German force in Italy into the north. Italy itself, the axis partner, now becomes Germany's prisoner. The meaning of the German invasion, which was carried out in the guise of assistance, is plain now. Italy never was anything more than Germany's tool in a war from which it stood to gain nothing of value.

The repercussions inside Germany, when they occur, may be tremendous. Italy's surrender is the counterpart of Bulgaria's surrender in September 25 years ago—the beginning of the disintegration of the Central Powers. One year ago a prediction that Italy would be out of the war in September, 1943, would have seemed unduly optimistic, but it has happened. There is some excuse for hoping that by the end of the year Germany may have repeated its collapse of the fall and early winter of 1918.

So They Say—

If these are wage injustices they are to be found in the white collar groups—certainly not among the manufacturing workers.—National Association of Manufacturers' report.

It is telling no secret to say that we hope to wind up the fighting in Europe and turn all our resources to the Far East.—Undersecretary of War Robert P. Patterson.

Mankind has now all the power and substance available for universal plenty and well-being beyond the dream of any previous age and he is wasting it all in destruction.—H. G. Wells, author.

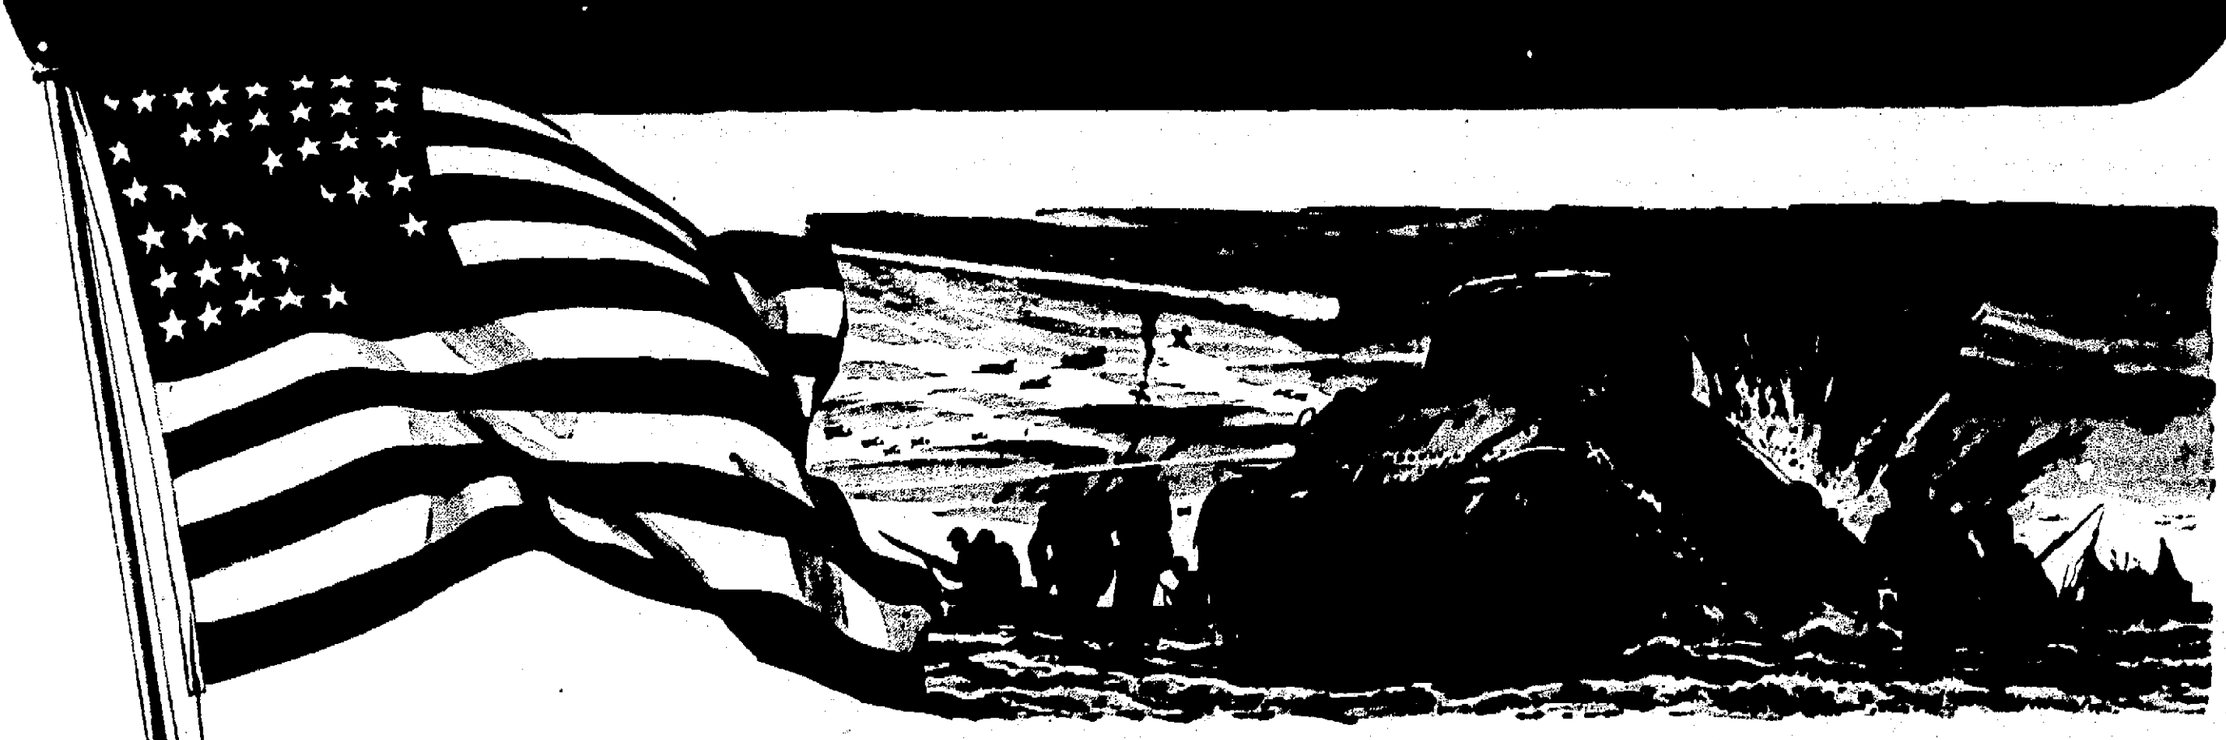
Forward March, America!

THE 3RD WAR LOAN DRIVE IS ON!



3RD WAR LOAN

15 BILLION DOLLARS
(NON-BANKING QUOTA)

Today . . . YOUR COUNTRY looks to YOU to back the INVASION

● The big drive is on! Not only on every battlefront—but on the home front, too. As the tempo of the war increases . . . as our fighting forces go all-out for INVASION, we folks back home must mobilize in their support.

We must back the attack with our dollars.

And that's what the 3rd War Loan Drive is for!

Today marks the opening of this vital drive, probably the most important appeal your government has ever made to you. Open your heart . . . and do your full part.

To reach our national quota everyone who possibly can must invest in at least one EXTRA $100 War Bond during the drive. AT LEAST $100. More if you can. That's in addition to your regular War Bond subscription. Invest out of your income . . . invest out of accumulated funds. Invest every dollar you can. For, one thing is certain—this is total war and everyone must do his full share. And that means you!

You know all about War Bonds. You know that every penny comes back to you with generous interest. That War Bonds are the safest investment in the world. That they help secure your future . . . hasten Victory. So now—today—let's all do our share. Back the invasion now—buy at least one extra $100 War Bond in September.

KENTON CURFEW LAW IS EFFECTIVE SEPT. 15

Special to The Star

KENTON, Sept. 9—This city's curfew law, prohibiting appearance of boys and girls under 17 on the streets after 10 p. m. nightly, will become effective Sept. 15, Mayor Leroy Hoppe said today after signing the ordinance which was passed earlier this week by city council as an emergency measure.

Penalties for offenders and their parents or guardians are provided for second and subsequent offenses. On nights of athletic competition or other school activities, the boys and girls will be permitted one-half hour after close of the activity to reach their homes.

Other council action included acceptance of the resignation of City Treasurer Ralph E. Stout who is moving soon to Columbus, and the approval of budget estimates showing estimated expenses in 1944 of $49,909 in the general fund, $18,000 for street maintenance and repair, and $42,-000 for operation of the municipal waterworks.

City Auditor Ralph E. Vaught said estimated receipts are above anticipated expenditures except in the general fund where a $1,000 deficit is foreseen. The water-sewer system should continue the year with a surplus of $9,000 over expenses, he declared.

Personal Mention

Mrs. Conway Jackson and children and Mrs. Cynthia Hammer left today for Delray Beach, Fla., to spend several months with Sgt. Conway Jackson, who is stationed at Boca Raton Field, Fla. Mrs. Jackson is the former Mary Jo Lusch.

Distinctive, Economical Floors — Armstrong
Asphalt Tile
Provide Inviting Background for
Retail Stores, Schools, Churches, Physicians, Dentists, Attorneys Offices, Manufacturing Plant Warehouses, Basement Recreation Rooms—

Old Fort Mills, the U. S. Employment Office, Lords Jewelry Store, Calvary Church Assembly Room, the Children's Room at the Public Library—these and many others right here in Marion are proud of their Armstrong Asphalt Tile Floors.

Wherever an economical floor with a truly luxurious appearance is called for, Armstrong Tile fills the bill most admirably. Surprisingly low in first cost and in upkeep expense, the striking colors of this long wearing material gives the impression of much higher priced floorings.

Easy—Low Cost Upkeep

All the attention this flooring requires is routine sweeping, and occasional washing and waxing. It gives years of trouble-free service without needing any costly refinishing. The inevitable cigarette and match scars can easily be removed. Constant traffic, sliding desks and chairs, won't mar the beauty of this Asphalt Tile. The colors run right through to the back—can't grow dim nor wear off.

Armstrong Tile is TWELVE TIMES as quiet under foot as hardwood floors.

We shall be glad to give you an estimate on the cost of putting Asphalt Tile in your room. No obligation on your part, of course.

"SALADA" TEA

Noted Soldier Violinist On Program Here Next Sunday

Pfc. Wm. Chosnyk Booked for Appearance with Marion Civic Chorus at Chautauqua Pavilion.

When the Marion Civic Chorus presents its summer concert, Sunday, Sept. 12, at the Chautauqua pavilion the guest soloist will be Pfc. William Chosnyk, violinist, who is stationed at Fort Hayes in Columbus. Appearing with the chorus and guest musician will be the Harding High School band, whose members will play a 20-minute program of patriotic and sacred numbers. No admission will be charged for the program which will be given at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

The chorus, organized early this year following the presentation of a Christmas oratorio, "The Messiah" by Handel, has in the few months since its organization contributed to a great measure in the cultural and civic life of the city. Early this summer the chorus sang Haydn's "The Creation," which drew an audience of more than 700 music lovers.

Variety in Program

For next Sunday the chorus has chosen to present a program so varied it will suit all music lovers. Under the direction of L. G. J. Jones, who has directed the group in its presentations, the chorus will present patriotic numbers, selections from light opera, and a cappella selections, both of a sacred and secular numbers.

Herman F. Huffman, instructor of instrumental music in the public schools, will direct the programs for the High School band.

Pfc. Chosnyk, talented violinist from New York City, not only has been entertaining with programs for the men of the armed forces, but is fast making a name for himself in Columbus music circles. He served in the New Hebrides before he was invalided to New Zealand due to a tropical fever. Before being called to the colors he appeared on all leading radio stations in New York City and for three years conducted a radio program known as "The Story of the Violin." He is a member of the faculty of the Music Settlement House of New York which nurtures and encourages children of musical talent. He is of Ukranian descent and is himself a product of this school.

Played in New Zealand

In New Zeland Chosnyk attended many symphony concerts where he found that music lovers of high education had tastes very similar to those in the United States. While in New Zealand, and using a borrowed instrument, he appeared as one of the soloists in a performance of the "Bach D Minor Concerto" for two violins.

Mrs. H. K. Mosier is president of the Marion Civic Chorus. Theresa Belz is vice president, Earl T. Smith treasurer, Mrs. W. J. Wise, secretary, Mrs. LeRoy Schroeder, publicity chairman, George Oborn, registrar. Mr. Jones is director, Mr. Huffman, assistant director and Miss Rosanne Manza, pianist.

Caledonia Music Pupils in Recital

Marion Teacher Assignments Made; Schools To Open Monday

More Than 200 Assigned to Various Buildings; Two Teaching Staff Positions Still Vacant.

Assignment of more than 200 members of the city school staff was announced today by Supt. E. E. Holt as [illegible] for the 1943-44 term Monday. Because of the large number of teachers due to a large number and [illegible] the Marion schools will open with only two positions remaining to be filled, that of art instructor for the eight sewing classes and a writing instructor. There is a possibility that the latter will not be employed in keeping with a suggestion made by the board of education that this position be abolished this year as a matter of economy.

Fifteen new teachers will take up their work in the schools this year. While there will be some shifting of principals and teachers, due to vacancies, the staffs in the various schools will remain pretty much the same as last year.

Supt. Holt has called a meeting of principals for today at which time school activities were to be outlined. Due to the shifting of families in which one or more parents are employed in war work, no estimate can be placed on the number of pupils to be registered this year.

The following is a list of teachers and the buildings to which they are assigned:

Forest Lawn—[illegible]

PLANS OUTLINED BY DAY NURSERY GROUP

Yard Improvements and New Equipment Authorized.

Miss Patricia Gray, new director for Marion's Day Nursery on Hill street, was introduced to the Day Nursery committee and plans made by the executive board at a meeting at Hotel Harding yesterday were discussed and approved when the committee met last night at the nursery.

Miss Gray presented the new daily schedule of activities. The budget to be presented to the Community Fund was approved.

Ellis Oiler and James Jenkins, representing the CIO labor union, were present and announced that plans for the improvement of the back yard would be completed next week. The committee decided to buy gravel to make a playground in the backyard.

Mrs. Paul Lust, chairman of the volunteer committee, reported that the Girl Scouts had done helpful work at the Day Nursery during the summer. She said that more volunteer workers are needed for the mornings to work from 8 until 12. Anyone who is willing to volunteer should report to Mrs. Lust on Windsor street.

The committee approved a plan to buy blocks and painting materials for pre-school work for children between the ages of 4 and 5 this season.

MRS. AMERICA. Mrs. Betty Stedman (above), of Kalamazoo, Mich., won the title of "Mrs. America of 1943" in the sixth annual married women's beauty contest at Palisades Park, N. J. As Betty Brunk, she was runner-up in the Miss America competition at Atlantic City, N. J., in 1942.

The first electrically propelled ship of the U. S. Navy was the Langley.

DEATH TAKES MRS. E. H. COWAN

Stricken at Home After Brief Illness; Rites To Be Held Saturday at 2 P. M.

Mrs. Maude Stoltz Cowan, 65, wife of E. H. Cowan, Marion real estate man, died at 9 a. m. today in her home at 331 South State street following an illness of three weeks. She was active in church, civic, civic and social affairs in Marion and was the daughter of one of the city's pioneer automobile dealers.

Mrs. Cowan was born Aug. 2, 1878, in Darke county to Charles C. and Jennie Myers Tennant Stoltz, natives of that county. Her marriage to Mr. Cowan took place in Marion, Sept. 10, 1902.

Mrs. Cowan's church affiliations were with the First Presbyterian church where she was superintendent of teachers in the Sunday school, leader of Circle No. 8 of the Ladies Aid society, a member and past president of the Women's Missionary society, secretary of the executive board of the missionary society and spiritual life secretary. She also was vice president of the Marion Presbyterial and served as spiritual life secretary of that group. She was a charter member and a past president of the Advance club and at the time of her death was first vice president and a past president of the Art club. In the work of the Marion County Federation of Women's Clubs Mrs. Cowan held a number of offices, among them that of vice president, and for the last several years had served as historian of the organization. She had, for many years, been active in Red Cross work and until her recent illness served on production and home nursing committees of the organization.

Surviving are the husband, former manager of the Marion Water Co. and a major in World War I, two daughters, Mrs. Stephen B. Haines of Washington, D. C., and Miss Eleanor V. Cowan at home, a son, Richard S. Cowan of 341 Pearl street and four grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday at the First Presbyterian church, with the pastor, Rev. Howard L. Olewiler officiating. Burial will be made in the Marion cemetery. Friends may call at the Merle H. Hughes mortuary after 7:30 o'clock tonight and until 1 p. m. Saturday when the body will be removed to the church.

$25 Fines Ordered For Young Women in Fight

Three young Marion women arrested by city police at 1:30 a. m. Wednesday for fighting over the boy friend of one of the girls drew $25 fines when they pleaded guilty Wednesday before Municipal Judge W. Dexter Hazen to charges of disorderly conduct. Two of the women gave their ages as 20 the other 26.

A fourth girl, 23, arrested with them was fined $25 on a charge based on a suspicious person ordinance enacted by city council several months ago. She also pleaded guilty.

RITES FOR INFANT

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Milford J. Wyrick of 498 Darius street. The child died two hours after birth in City hospital yesterday morning. He is survived by his parents, a brother, Jay Norman, and a sister, Sandra June. Services were conducted at Hughes Mortuary by Rev. Howard L. Olewiler. Burial was made in Forest Glen cemetery.

Hospital Work in Final Stages

Job 85 Per Cent Finished; Application of Interior Ceiling, Wall and Flooring Material Under Way.

Work on the $160,000 temporary addition to the Marion City hospital is definitely in the final stages.

Paul W. Jones, superintendent of the Kent Brothers Construction Co. of Columbus, the general contracting firm, yesterday estimated that approximately 85 per cent of the work on the addition has been completed. Similar estimates were made by various sub-contractors now busily engaged on the sprawling addition which when completed will double the size of the present hospital.

Remaining to be done, Mr. Jones said is the finishing of the interior of the frame addition. First of the finishing work was started a week ago when the Turner-Brooks Co. of Toledo, floor designers, arrived with a large crew to begin work on application of acoustical tile to the ceilings, asphalt tile to the floors and marlaigat tile to the walls in certain parts of the T-shaped building.

Method of Flooring

Directing this work in Warren Melle. After only a week's work, 15 per cent of the total project has already been completed, Mr. Melle said. Application of the tile flooring entails considerable work, he said. First is applied a felt base. To this is nailed diamond-shaped wire lath and next a half inch coating of fibrated emulsified asphalt is applied. On top of this is fastened one-eighth inch tile.

Electricians under the direction of J. D. Kissel, Geneva, O., contractor, have nearly completed "roughing in" the electrical service. Harry Pfeiffer, local electrician who is foreman on the job, said that this work should be completed yet this week. At the start of the project members of the local hospital board as well as the electrical contractor were not certain whether all electrical equipment could be obtained. However, in recent weeks considerable quantities of material have been received and it is expected that remaining material will be obtained in time to complete this phase of the project on schedule.

Roof Nearly Completed

Either today or tomorrow work on installation of roofing is to be completed. For several weeks now the roof over the center section of the addition has been completed. In the last two or three weeks workmen have been engaged in the application of roofing over the lower sections.

Not until much of the work of the Toledo firm engaged in applying wall ceiling and flooring materials is completed will the job of finishing woodwork throughout the building be started.

While work has been pressed toward completion of the addition, workmen have been able to complete the addition to the laundry in the present hospital building. The addition includes the size of the old laundry and provide a large room for storage in the basement of the old building.

Similar progress has been made on the corridors connecting the addition with the old hospital.

232 Feet Long

The addition is connected to the south end of the present hospital and extends westward for 232 feet along Superior street to within a few feet of Cleveland avenue. The east end of the T-shaped structure runs northward from the center of the east-west section.

The main entrance to the addition will be of simple colonial design and will be located in the center of the section facing Superior street. Emergency deliveries upon the completion of the addition will be made on the west side of the north-south section of the T-shaped building, instead of at the north end of the present building.

Auction of 18 Buns Puts $21 in Cigaret Fund

Eighteen buns left after refreshments were served following a meeting of Carpenters Local No. 976 last evening in the hall on South Main street, were auctioned for $21.89 when was put into a cigaret fund for service men.

A suggestion which was made lightly during the social hour became a financial success when Frank Rengert a member and auctioneer from Waldo put the remaining buns up for auction to the members.

The amount received from the impromptu sale was added to the cigaret money which had been taken up during the meeting.

Preparations Made for Street Work

Clyde C. Caldwell, city safety-service director, announced that a few men were cleaning the streets in preparation for the surface treating of around 50 city streets to be undertaken as soon as the contractor, C. E. Edgington & Son Co. of Findlay arrive. They were expected this afternoon. Some of the material for the job has arrived. Prospect street is among the streets to be treated.

Due to this new project and the present shortage of manpower, Mr. Caldwell said, there will be no tin can collection until the week of Oct. 4.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN
Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there's something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

CAMP HOWZE, Tex.—Soldiers on field problems at Camp Howze cheered the Army's new morale-builder—a rolling post exchange. Two trucks—one with candy, cigarettes and other "dry goods," and the other loaded with "wet goods," soft drinks and such—followed soldiers into the field.

LONDON

lation and dependent on the narrow Alpine passes for all supplies and reinforcements, the Germans sooner or later will "have to rest content with guarding the passes and little more" Lt. Gen. H. G. Martin, military correspondent of the Daily Telegraph predicted.

Brigadier F. C. Ansley, military correspondent for the Daily Sketch said that "Germans now south of the Po should have no reasonable chance of escape at all."

Nine Divisions Along Po

German forces concentrated north of the Po are estimated in London to include roughly half of the 18 German divisions in Italy. The remainder forces are scattered down the length of Italy in the toe where some are engaged in fighting the British Eighth Army north of Palmi.

Gen. Martin suggested that as soon as the heel of Italy has been cleared "an invasion of Albania or indeed the whole coast of Yugoslavia becomes a feasible proposition * * * the Balkans are ripe for invasion."

He forecast the Germans would withdraw to a line running along the northern border of Italy across the Gulf of Venice and along the Sava river to the Danube and on to the Black sea—a line guarding the European crossroads of Vienna and Budapest.

Draft of Fathers Stirs New Controversy on Capital Hill

By ALEX H. SINGLETON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 — A mounting controversy over the plan to draft fathers occupies a top place on the calendar of the returning congress, with a strong possibility the lawmakers will countermand an important decision of the nation's military chiefs for the first time since Pearl Harbor.

The test will come on a measure to prevent induction of fathers until after Jan. 1, a stop-gap bill designed to give congress time to study the manpower requirements of the armed forces and the related home front problems of producing war materials, civilian essentials and food.

For congress—a body which, by almost unanimous accord, has given the war bosses a free rein in mustering, training and fighting the biggest armed force in the country's history—has turned quizzical on the draft-fathers issue.

Opposition Increases

From statement after statement issued during the summer recess, it has become evident that the legislators are returning to Washington with an I'm-from-Missouri, show-me-why attitude.

They have demonstrated their determination to obtain from responsible officials — Manpower Commissioner McNutt, Selective Service Director Hershey, General George C. Marshall, Army chief of staff, and War Production Chief Donald Nelson—answers to these questions:

How big is our Army now?

How many men have we overseas?

What is the total we can maintain abroad and still fulfill our supply-the-allies pledges?

How many fathers do the military authorities plan to draft?

Where are they needed most now—in military service or war jobs?

The time element, with selective service headquarters calling upon local draft boards to begin inducting fathers on Oct. 1, has given the subject priority over other major questions.

Senator Wheeler (D-Mont), author of the bill to halt the father draft for three months, said he would call it up Sept. 15, just a day after congress returns to its legislative work. From a spokesman for administration forces on the Hill came word that chances of defeating the bill are slim.

Other Side Strong

Not that its course will be smooth. Senator Maybank (D-SC) has insisted that the judgment of the military authorities should not be challenged on the question, while Senator Ball (R-Minn) has declared that the fact a man is a father should not be the prime factor in granting deferments.

If passed by the senate, the legislation then would be shunted over to the house, which months ago went on record against induction of fathers until the supply of single men and childless married men has been exhausted.

There, confidently awaiting its arrival, two groups favoring the stop-gap measure are debating strategy for obtaining final passage of the measure. One group would protect the bill from amendment to avoid a deadlock with the senate; the other has advocated additions to provide by law for induction on a statewide rather than local basis and to set up order-of-induction categories based upon dependency status.

Meanwhile, there remained the possibility that President Roosevelt would intervene, either by outlining to the congressional military committees the reasons for calling up fathers or by a veto of the Wheeler bill if and when it gains approval of the house and senate.

Pictures and Letters Best Gifts for Troops

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9—Letters or family photographs are No. 1 items on the Christmas lists of men and women serving overseas.

The Office of War Information (OWI), after quizzing recently returned officers, overseas "Yank" correspondents and the Army exchange service, said today that:

"More than the most elaborate gift, soldiers will welcome newsy, cheerful letters from home and recent photographs or snapshots of family and friends.

Other gifts rated highly are: Cigaret lighters "that will light in a strong wind," shockproof and waterproof wrist watches, hunting or Boy Scout knives, and small inexpensive cameras with film.

Items not wanted, according to OWI, include: Cigarets, assorted commercial packages of goodies, elaborate shaving kits, or food, except for a well-packed fruit cake.

A tip passed on by the Army exchange service is that leather rots quickly in hot, damp climates, so if your gift is going to the South Pacific canvas or cloth goods are better bets.

OWI stressed that gifts should be mailed between Sept. 15 and Oct. 15.

LARUE PILOT GETS WINGS, COMMISSION

Keith Fields Dive Bomber Pilot with Marines.

Among the aviation cadets receiving wings and commissions Saturday, Sept. 4 at Corpus Christi, Texas, was Cadet Keith Fields, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Fields of LaRue. Field received his wings and was commissioned as a second lieutenant in the Marine Air Corps as a dive bomber pilot and navigator.

Lieut. Fields was graduated from the LaRue High school in 1939 and enlisted April 1942 in the Naval Air Corps. He spent two months in training at Ohio State university and Norton Flying Field at Columbus. He then trained for three months at Iowa City, Iowa, and four months at Olathe Air Base, Kansas.

In May he was sent to Corpus Christi for advanced flying. He passed tests for Marine Air Corps and was transferred to the Marines in July.

Lieut. Fields is one of four boys of the Fields family who have enlisted in service of their country. A younger brother, Paul A. Fields, is a seaman second class, an older brother Lawrence G. Fields is in Civil Service at the Pearl Harbor Navy yards, and a half brother, Sgt. Damon Leffler is in the Army Air Forces.

Lt. Fields has been transferred to a Marine Air base somewhere in Florida.

Communist Paper Takes Credit for Italy's Fall

By The Associated Press

LONDON, Sept. 9 — Pravda, Communist party organ, was quoted in a Moscow broadcast as saying today that it was not accidental that Italy should fall at the same time as the brilliant victory of the Red army in the Donets basin.

Declaring the Red army had dealt Hitler's plans for a summer offensive a hard blow and had wiped off the best of Nazi divisions fighting on the eastern front, Pravda said that "blows struck at the Hitlerite army at Orel and Belgorod knocked Mussolini from his perch."

Berlin Broadcasts Own Version of Duces Downfall

By The Associated Press

The Berlin radio broadcast today its version of Benito Mussolini's downfall — that Mussolini was "dragged by brute force" from the royal palace, strapped to a stretcher and spirited away in an ambulance.

His removal on July 25, the broadcast said, was the result of a secretly-planned coup d'etat between King Vittorio Emanuele and the present premier, Pietro Badoglio.

"It seems to be certain," the broadcast said, that il duce was taken to Ponza island, in the gulf of Gaeta about 75 miles southeast of Rome.

The radio gave this version of Mussolini's "abduction:"

Il duce had requested an interview with the king to request full powers to halt sabotage, the "cowardly desertion" of generals and other officers of the air force in Sicily, the "unsocial attitude" of superior Italian officers and corruption in the army.

He was taken completely by surprise when, at the close of the interview, the king said:

"I must inform you that your successor * * * has already been designated and in fact entered office. This man is Marshal Badoglio. Put yourself at his disposal."

Mussolini answered that he felt strong enough, in order to save the Italian people, to oppose the crown and if necessary even the army.

As he left, he noted that his car and special guard had been removed from the palace entrance and ordered servants to bring it.

Instead, a colonel approached him and said:

"Your excellency, I have received an order to arrest you. Please enter this car."

The German broadcast said that the Fascist militia had been crippled "by the traitors" and that Mussolini was powerless to resist.

PRESIDENT

radio speech that the "time for celebration" hadn't yet arrived. Moreover, he asserted, he has an idea that the day of final victory shall find this nation in a mood of "grim determination that this shall not happen again" rather than in a celebrating frame of mind.

After referring to the hard job yet to be done Mr. Roosevelt perhaps tipped off his listeners to big things happening even as he spoke. At two points in his prepared speech he interpolated the phrase "at this moment" when speaking of Allied troops landing on strange enemy coasts and bombers roaring in at roof top level. He may, or may not have had in mind the new Allied landings at Naples, a few hours later.

The President called the Italian armistice a victory for both the Allies and the Italian people released after years of "war and suffering and degradation."

War Far From End

The Mediterranean war is far from finished, however, he declared for "we must drive the Germans out of Italy * * * we must drive them out of France and all other captive countries, and we must strike them on their own soil from all directions."

The Italian announcement consummated plans made at Casablanca last January, said Mr. Roosevelt, and he and Prime Minister Churchill have made "new, well-considered plans for the future."

"But throughout these conferences we have never lost sight of the fact that this war will become bigger and bigger," he said, "rather than easier during the long months to come."

Declaring the stupendous job involves staggering costs, he said "we can not afford to be niggardly with any of our resources."

BELLEVUE AVE. MAN DIES IN COLUMBUS

Chas. S. Alexander Stricken; Funeral Services Saturday.

Charles Sumner Alexander, 41, of 250 Bellevue avenue died in Grant hospital, Columbus, at 3 p. m. yesterday. He suffered a heart attack while attending a CIO convention in Columbus last week.

Born May 7, 1899 in Essex, he was a son of George W. Alexander and Martha Mulvane Alexander, the father a native of Delaware county and the mother of Union county. July 28, 1925 he married Miss Hazel Linn. A machinist at the Osgood Co. plant, he was a member of Roosevelt Lodge No. 1281, Machinists. He was a resident of Marion 28 years, coming here from Byhalia.

Surviving besides the widow, Mrs. Hazel Linn Alexander, are two sisters, Miss Ethel Alexander and Mrs. C. R. Gibson of 212 Patten street, and two nieces and two nephews.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday at 2 p. m. in the Schaffner-Denzer funeral home on East Center street by Rev. Eldred Johnston of Central Christian church. Burial will be made in Marion cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home.

GERMANS REPORT ITALIANS SEIZE PASS

By The Associated Press

LONDON, Sept. 9—The Germans announced tonight that Italian troops "occupied Brenner Pass" on Tuesday—one day before the announcement of Premier Pietro Badoglio's unconditional surrender — and acknowledged that Italian troops have been fighting the Nazis in some parts of Italy.

In a broadcast restating and emphasizing the Nazi line that Italy's capitulation was "treacherous," the German international information bureau, a propaganda agency, made these disclosures while claiming that the internal situation in Italy still was generally in German control.

The "most important" lines of communication are in the hands of the Germans or "Italian troops loyal to the axis," said the Berlin broadcast, recorded by The Associated Press.

This was an indirect claim that Badoglio's orders not to resist the allies any further were not being obeyed in all cases by the Italians.

Special Activities

Several special activities have been scheduled before the drive ends on Sept. 30. The first will be the big war bond benefit show at the Palace theater next Thursday night, for which Rotary club members are already selling tickets, obtainable only through the purchase of a $100 war bond. There will be movie stars on the stage, headed by Walter Brennan, and a screen show, nother "special" will come the following day when the Ringling Brothers-Barnum & Bailey circus sells a block of "war bond" seats for performances it will give at the Marion county fairgrounds. Other extra activities are expected to develop during the month.

Sales in Stores

One important phase of the drive is being handled by retailers of the county, who are urging their customers to buy extra bonds as they contact them in the stores. Each store employe in the county is shooting for a personal goal of sales totaling $200.

The organization setup for Marion county is complete, and if it functions on schedule, every family in the county will be contacted at least once during the drive, possibly several times. Most of them will be reached through their places of employment rather than at their homes, with the large factories' phase of the campaign being handled through the payroll deduction organization. Block chairmen and their assistants will cover downtown Marion, a separate group will contact corporations, another group will work the rural areas and community chairmen will direct village activities. The women's division will step up its activities throughout the month.

Moral Effect Great Allied Triumph in Italy's Surrender

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Italy's surrender is a good deal like the Christmas present which we knew we should find in our stocking but which is none the less a matter of much rejoicing.

The capitulation of this first member of the axis to go under in the allied flood represents a military triumph, but the moral effect may be even greater. This is particularly true of the Balkans, where dissatisfaction is running through the axis satellites and the occupied countries are eager to get at Hitlers throat. It will cast a long shadow across the unhappy people of Germany itself.

Italy's collapse has robbed the Nazi fuehrer of his magic.

Many advantages lie in this triumph, but it seems to me that the vital consideration is that it represents the liquidation of axis power in the whole Mediterranean theater. One thing the allies have had to keep constantly to the fore in their plans—that control of the Mediterranean was essential for final victory. Had Hitler broken through the Russians into the lower Caucasus and Middle East, or had he overrun Egypt, there's no telling to what straits he might have driven the United Nations by this time.

Record of Unified Effort

The preliminaries to the conquest of Italy are great pages in the history of a global war which undoubtedly is ushering in a new epoch in the progress of mankind. It is the record of a really united effort, in which all the allies played their parts to the limits of their ability.

There was the stonewall stand of the magnificent Red forces at Stalingrad, where Hitler broke his back last winter. Had he won there he likely would have swept down the Caucasus into the Middle East. There was the gallant allied defense which stopped Rommel's drive toward the Suez canal. Then came Libya, Tripoli, Tunisia and Sicily. All these contributed to the present victory.

Just as in those grim days of a year ago, so now the operations of the big three—America, Britain and Russia—and the allies, have served by coincidence or design to complement one another. The collapse of Italy has set Hitler's Balkan bulwarks to shaking like reeds in a storm, thereby weakening his defenses against both the western allies and the Russians. Simultaneously Marshal Stalin triumphantly announces the Red capture of Stalino, Hitler's key base in the rich Donets basin, and proclaims in an order of the day that "the Donets basin is cleared of the Germans."

Whole Nazi Effort in Danger

Thus the Nazi fuehrer's whole vast eastern front, and its continuation down into the cockpit of the Balkins, is rocking under the impact, direct or indirect, of the various allied operations. The efforts of each ally are bolstering those of the partners. It's important that we keep this firmly in mind, in the interests of unity.

Italy doesn't, of course, provide a spring-board for direct invasion. However, it will be a magnificent base for numerous operations, once the peninsula has been cleared of Nazis. If the Hitlerites decide to defend the strong line of the Po river across northern Italy, there is likely to be bitter fighting.

Allied troops which made a fresh landing near Naples this morning have made contact with German forces. This means that the Nazis still remaining in southern Italy are attempting to fight a delaying action. While there may be some fierce engagements, it seems unlikely that the allies will encounter heavily sustained resistance until the northern part of the country is reached.

Possession of Italy as a base naturally will permit of numerous operations. One of the greatest gains will be acquisition of airfields which will bring allied bombing fleets much nearer eastern Germany. We shall be able to comb this hitherto comparatively isolated area and reach handily such vital targets as the enormous Skoda armament works in Czechoslovakia—one of Hitler's chief sources of supply now that so many of his war industries in the Ruhr lie in ruins.

GERMANS

fighting for control of Italy between the allied armies which landed far up the coast at Naples during the night, and 18 German divisions believed to be garrisoned in the northern and northwestern sectors of the country.

Out of the chaos of a country prematurely celebrating peace came unconfirmed reports, via Stockholm, of other allied landings at Genoa, at two other points near Rome and on Sardinia. Among the welter of other reports was one broadcast by the Swiss radio that the United States Seventh army had landed at Leghorn and that "hundreds of allied planes were about to land on the Italian mainland."

Appeals To Troops

In his broadcast to the Italian people announcing creation of the new "government which stands and acts in Mussolini's name," the Berlin commentator cried:

"Soldiers! Do not obey the false orders of treason. Refuse to surrender to the enemy. Refuse to fight against your German comrades in arms."

The surrender of Italy threw into confusion the entire German position in the Balkans, and Adolf Hitler's whole political structure in southern and southeastern Europe seemed today to be in danger of falling to pieces even before the Germans are driven from Italy.

Dispatches to London newspapers told of Admiral Nicholas Horthy, regent of Hungary, anxiously summoning his chiefs of staff and promising a "most important declaration" later today; of heightened fears and restiveness in already fearful Rumania and the shakiness of Bulgaria, now minus her pro-axis King Boris.

London military commentators agreed that the allies' most likely next step is an offensive in the Balkans.

LONDON, Sept. 9—The Swedish newspaper Dagens Nyheter published a dispatch from its Zurich correspondent today which said that Benito Mussolini has been removed from Italy to the island of La Maddalena off the northern coast of Sardinia to prevent any attempt to rescue him.

FATHER DRAFT BAN GAINS MOMENTUM

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9—Italy's unconditional surrender gave momentum today to a congressional drive for a ban on the drafting of fathers, but brought warnings from both Capitol Hill and elsewhere in Washington that it did not mean the war against the axis would end quickly.

Typical of the reaction was the terse comment of Elmer Davis, head of the Office of War Information (OWI), that "we haven't licked the Germans yet."

On both sides of the Capitol demands were voiced for quick action to halt the projected induction of pre-Pearl Harbor fathers and for a general congressional survey of manpower resources.

AIR ATTACK

er fleet which headed for Europe today.

A German communique, broadcast by Berlin, declared 11 allied planes were shot down "during attacks by strong Anglo-American bomber formations on occupied territories in the west and over the Atlantic."

No Planes Lost

A joint British-American communique announced, however, that all of last night's operations were carried out without the loss of a plane.

Dispatches from Folkestone said the great burst of daylight activity started shortly before 7 a. m. and during the first hour alone hundreds of Marauders, Venturas, Mitchells and other bombers roared out across the coast in packed formations.

The paucity of enemy aircraft testified to the thoroughness of the allies' seven-day preliminary campaign against German operational bases in France and indicated the enemy's wariness to match his declining air strength against the allies' mounting superiority.

English coastal residents who went through the battle of Britain and subsequent allied forays said they never saw such a big fleet over such a short time as the procession of hundreds of planes which started over soon after dawn and still was being augmented two hours later.

Explosions, reverberating across narrow Dover strait, rocked buildings on the English shore as a great fleet of aircraft of all categories carried the allied aerial offensive into its eighth successive day.

The daylight assaults followed a night bombardment of targets in occupied territory by RAF Planes.

New Thrust Seen

The unprecedented daylight attack, coming immediately after the surrender of Italy and the landing of allied forces in the Naples area, suggested that the allies might be launching a new thrust against the Germans.

There seemed to be no limit to the number of planes leaving England. They appeared in groups of 50 or 60 flying low and fast.

Many bomber squadrons headed for their targets just over the French coastline without escort—an indication of the high efficiency of the recent raids on more than 30 of the axis fields, which were believed to have knocked out much of the German fighter force.

But if the allied raiders were meeting with little or no opposition in today's sorties it was merely compensation for yesterday's effort when allied raids on fields in occupied France touched off what was described as one of the biggest dog fights of the war.

The attacks yesterday by U. S. Marauders on Lille-Vendeville and Lille-Nord and by RAF Mitchells on Vitry-En-Artois were covered by the largest Spitfire fighting force ever to take the air.

At one time more than 90 Nazi fighters rose to meet the attackers and a Polish Spitfire unit with the American Marauders shot down six enemy planes and damaged many more.

continued, and this has been an important factor in the success of allied forces.

Passing from these "material and physical factors of the situation," Stimson called attention to a "moral factor" to be kept in mind in estimating the importance of the Italian surrender.

It is significant, he said, that Italian armed forces have surrendered to the allies while the Germans still hold a great part of Italy and in considerable strength.

Stand Recognized

"The significance of this to us is that it demonstrates, in my opinion, the underlying sympathy of the Italian people for the cause of freedom," said Stimson. "And that they recognize that we—that our forces—represent that cause of freedom.

"That is an omen of great importance, an omen of great hope for our future campaigns. It shows that the people of Europe recognize the cause that we represent.

"Human memories are pretty short, and our generation is apt to forget that less than a century ago Italy wrote a glorious chapter in the history of human freedom.

"I refer to what the Italians term the 'risorgimento,' that wonderful, swift period in which Italy became united in what we call a liberal government, in which the individual Italian achieved his individual freedom.

"We should make it clear that our purpose is to recreate and restore, not to destroy, the freedom so gloriously achieved by Italy such a short time ago."

U. S. MARCUS RAIDERS MEET NO OPPOSITION

By The Associated Press

PEARL HARBOR, Sept. 9—The biggest aircraft carrier force ever sent on a single mission in the Pacific, boldly appearing 900 miles past Japanese-held Wake and within 1,200 miles of Tokyo, sent bombing planes for eight hours over Marcus Island Sept. 1 until enemy defenses there had been laid waste.

Not a Japanese plane got off the ground. Not an enemy bomber showed up from other bases within range. Not a ship from Nippon's war fleet interferred at any time with the American task force, simply bruising for a fight in so-called enemy controlled waters.

DESTRUCTION OF OIL FIELDS ALLIED AIM

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9—Allied forces sweeping through fallen Italy are believed to have one prime military objective—the occupation of air bases from which to destroy Germany's oil sources in Rumania and Hungary.

Bases within easy bombing reach of the great oil center at Ploesti, Rumania, and the lesser fields in Hungary may prove to be the key to Hitler's whole European fortress.

At the same time, military experts here say, the launching of an Italian-based aerial offensive against southern Germany and enemy industrial centers in the occupied countries to the east would place an insupportable strain on Germany's fighter defenses and hasten the breakup of the German airforce as well as the destruction of vital war plants.

These are among the reasons why official Washington believes that the surrender of the Mediterranean axis power has advanced by several months the end of the European war.

To the west of Italy the islands of Sardinia and Corsica, the latter believed garrisoned exclusively by Italian troops, seem to offer stepping stones for the establishment of a beachhead on the southern coast of France.

T. C. OMEARA DIES SUDDENLY AT AKRON

Burial To Take Place at Meeker, Saturday.

Thomas C. Omeara, 42, of Wadsworth, O., husband of a Marion county woman, died suddenly in an Akron hospital yesterday of heart attack.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Helen Hickman Omeara, formerly of Marion county and a sister, Mrs. Salome Hickman of Martel. His mother, a son and daughter, two brothers and six other sisters also are living.

He was born July 4, 1901 to James and Sarah Shook Omeara in Wadsworth and he lived there most of his life. He was employed at the Goodrich Rubber Co. in Akron.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday at 2 p. m. in the Boyd and Uncapher funeral home with Rev. J. R. Dallas, pastor of Oakland Evangelical church officiating. Burial will be made in the Meeker cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after 7:30 p. m. Friday.

British Complete Invasion Rehearsal

LONDON, Sept. 9 — In a full dress rehearsal of invasion plans for the future, all arms of the British services have completed a giant amphibious exercise in the English channel, it was announced officially today.

Announcement of the completion of the maneuvers came within a day of the surrender of Italy, and coincided with what appeared to be the mightiest blows yet delivered by the allied air forces against French channel ports.

Italians in Balkans Ordered To Surrender

By The Associated Press

CAIRO, Sept. 9—Gen. Sir [illegible] Maitland Wilson, allied commander-in-chief in the Middle East, called upon Italian troops in the Balkans last night to "cease all hostile acts" and surrender their equipment to the allies but warned Greek and Yugoslav patriots against premature uprising against German occupation forces.

In a special broadcast Wilson said that Italian troops in the Balkans are "now obeying my, not German orders."

"Their ships must be handed over to the United Nations and aircraft must be flown to allied airfields. They must not turn over their arms or equipment to defended points to the Germans," Wilson warned.

Symphony Broadcast To Celebrate Fall of Italy

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Sept. 9—Surrender of Italy hurriedly sent the networks back to spur-of-the-moment broadcasting. Highlight of the occasion was the relay of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's broadcast from Algiers, announcing the signing of a military armistice.

In celebration, NBC at 6 p. m. will present a special program, "Victory, Act 1," with Arturo Toscanini conducting the NBC symphony orchestra. It was announced Acts 2 and 3 will follow the fall of Hitler and Tojo.

In continuation of special programs on behalf of the Third War Loan drive, the BLU has cancelled the spotlight band for 9:30 p. m. to present a broadcast by Archbishop Francis J. Spellman and Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York.

Securities You Can Buy in Third War Loan

Securities to fit every class and type of investor will be sold to the American people during the Third War Loan campaign opening today.

Salient facts about each type of security follow:

United States War Savings Bonds Series E: Now the most widely sold security in America. Known as the People's Bond the Series E War Bonds are issued to meet the needs of the small investor. No one person may buy more than $5000, maturity value ($3750 purchase price), in any one calendar year. For every $3 invested in Series E Bonds you receive $4 at the end of 10 years. They are dated the first day of the month in which payment is received by an authorized issuing agent. Due 10 years from issue date. Interest return: equivalent to 2.9 per cent compounded semi-annually, if held to maturity. Denominations: $25, $50, $100, $500, and $1000. Issue price is 75 per cent of maturity value. Owners may redeem bond in whole or part at any time 60 days after issue date without notice at stated redemption values. Cannot be used as collateral for loans.

United States Savings Bonds Series F and G: For larger investors. Series F, issued at a discount, are commonly known as 12-year appreciation bonds. Redeemable at option of owner at increased fixed redemption values. Increase in value represents the interest return, which is approximately 2.53 per cent compounded semi-annually if bonds are held to maturity. Issue price is 74 per cent of maturity value. Issued in $25, $100, $500, $1000, $5000, and $10,000 denominations. Limit on holdings: $100,000 (issue price), of either series or a combination of both F and G, in any one calendar year. Who may buy: All classes of purchasers other than commercial banks accepting demand deposits.

Redemption: On first of any month, six months after issue date upon one month's written notice.

Series G Bonds are issued at par. They bear interest at the rate of 2½ per cent a year, the interest being payable semi-annually by treasury check. They mature 12 years from issue date. They are redeemable prior to maturity at option of owner, at fixed redemption prices, which are less than the face amount of the bonds for interest adjustment purposes. In the matter of who may buy, limit on holdings, and redemptions they are similar to the F Series. Denominations are $100, $500, $1000, $5000, and $10,000.

Treasury Savings Notes of Series C: Issued at par in $1000, $5000, $10,000, $100,000, $500,000, and $1,000,000 denominations. Designed for Federal tax payments and short term investment. Due three years from issue date. Investment yield is 1.07 per cent a year if held to maturity; lesser yield if redeemed for cash or tendered in payment of taxes at earlier dates. May be redeemed at par and accrued interest, after six months from purchase date. May be used as collateral for loans from banking institutions only. May be purchased in unlimited amount by any individual, or bank, corporation or other entity.

Treasury Certificates of Indebtedness: Dated Sept. 15, 1943, due Sept. 1, 1944, paying 7-8 per cent. They will be available for subscription by investors during the entire period of the drive. The certificates will be in denominations of $1000 to $1,000,000 and will be issued in coupon form only. Not open to commercial bank subscription.

Two per cent Treasury Bonds: Dated Sept. 15, 1943, due Sept. 15, 1953, callable Sept. 15, 1951. Available for subscription by investors for the entire period of the drive. These bonds will be in denominations of from $500 to $1,000,000 and will be issued in coupon or registered form at the option of the buyer. Not open to commercial bank subscription.

Twenty-six Year 2½ Per Cent Treasury Bonds: Dated Sept. 15, 1943, due Dec. 15, 1968, callable Dec. 15, 1964. Will be issued in coupon or registered form at the option of the buyer. Commercial banks, which are defined for this purpose as banks accepting demand deposits, will not be permitted to own these bonds until Sept. 15, 1953. There will be no limit to the amount of this issue and no restriction upon the issuance excepting the temporary exclusion of commercial banks from ownership for their own account. The bonds will be sold in denominations of from $500 to $1,000,000.

Friend or Foe, It's All the Same to Italian

By The Associated Press

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, Sept. 9—A Spitfire circled over Reggio Calabria and an Italian civilian looked up appreciatively.

Then, with evident relief, he said, "It's one of ours."

"No, it's one of ours," corrected an RAF officer with whom the civilian had been chatting.

"That's the same thing now," replied the Italian with a shrug of his shoulders.

The story was related today in an official RAF statement.

AFRICA HAS ELBOW ROOM

By The United Press

LOS ANGELES, Calif.—Africa, with a population of 150,000,000, can support twice that number, according to Dr. Frank J. Klimberg, professor of history in the University of California. The population is now stationary as against an increase in Asia of 15,000,000 to 20,000,000 annually.

In addition to the two pairs of shoes issued every American soldier on entering the service, three extra pairs must be available in reserve, and two more pairs in process of manufacture.

The Care and Use of Electrical Appliances in the Home

ROASTER-OVEN

1. Follow same principles used in oven-range cooking.
2. When using an electric roaster, take care that it is not plugged into a circuit on which any other appliance with a heating element is connected. It may overload the circuit.
3. For the same reason, do not connect body of roaster and broiler at the same time.
4. Never connect Roaster-Oven to a drop cord from the ceiling. The wire may not be suitable for such heavy duty.
5. The inset pan is left in for all cooking. Place smaller utensils in inset pan, never in the shell of roaster itself.
6. Do not immerse outer shell, broiler or grid unit in water when cleaning. Wipe clean with damp—not wet—cloth.

Hint worth remembering

When using your Roaster-Oven, don't waste any heat by lifting the lid unnecessarily to watch or test foods. There's no reason for doing it.

Cheese Wise Point Buy

By ALICE DENHOFF

A woman who is nutrition minded lends her ration points to almost any ration arithmetic problems in giving your family supper menus a full quota of proteins if you make use of the six-ounce wedge shaped cut of cream cheese.

In addition to the plain cream cheese there are delicious wedges flavored with relish, pimento and chives.

By combining this cheese with fruit, nuts and vegetables, you have a wide variety of flavors from which to choose for salads and sandwich fillings.

Many Uses

Half pears with balls of cream cheese, diced fruit served on lettuce with balls of pimento cream cheese and melon balls served on lettuce with cream cheese mayonnaise are all substantial, healthful and delicious salads.

For sandwiches cream cheese combines nicely with jam, jelly, chopped nuts, lettuce, watercress and chopped celery or raw carrot. So don't forego cream cheese even if it has ration-point value. Remember that it is made from milk and cream solids, that it is rich in muscle-building proteins as well as calcium, phosphorous and vitamin A.

To make the cream cheese mayonnaise, blend together three ounces cream cheese, ½ cup mayonnaise, 2 tablespoons chopped sweet pickle and a teaspoon of chopped parsley. Chill and serve on crisp lettuce or endive. Makes one cup of dressing.

Delicious Sandwich

For a fine sandwich made with whole wheat bread, blend 3 ounces cream cheese with a tablespoon horseradish and 8 stuffed olives or 2 or 3 chopped sweet pickles. To make another toothsome filling, remove the large seeds from half a cucumber, and chop, draining off any liquid. Blend with 3 ounces chive cream cheese and ¼ teaspoon salt.

For a wonderful health salad soften an envelope of plain unflavored gelatin in ¼ cup cold water and dissolve in ½ cup hot water. Add one cup fruit juice and 2 tablespoons lemon juice. Mash 3 ounces cream cheese, add 3 tablespoons sugar and ¼ teaspoon salt. Gradually blend in fruit juice and gelatine mixture. Cool and when mixture just begins to thicken or jell, fold in 1½ cups diced fruits in season. Turn into one large or 6 individual molds that have first been rinsed out in cold water, and chill. When firm, unmold onto salad greens and serve with mayonnaise or desired dressing.

REUNIONS

SHUSTER

When the family of Chester Franklin Shuster gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shuster of Caledonia, Ohio, for the opening year was started by the 41 present. They were: Chester Franklin Shuster, Marion; Mrs. Chester Franklin Shuster, Caledonia; a grandson, Merle Shuster, stationed at Scott Field, Belleville, Ill.; a granddaughter, Mrs. Lora Wenrich, Plain Township, Marion; a great granddaughter, Mrs. Ruth Ann Wenrich, Plain Township, Marion; a great grandson, Chester Franklin Wenrich, Plain Township, Marion. A spot of patriotic greenery was used by Merle Shuster, who was preparing to enter the navy in service Petty Officer 3/c, was the color motif, presents and favors. Pfc. Lyman Nicole Shuster, U. S. Army Air Corps, who was home on furlough, was not present. The 1944 reunion will be held on the same date at the state park near Bucyrus.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. — A young man walked into the San Antonio Aviation Cadet Center and through a door marked "Private." He was told to go to another part of the building. "But I'm in the right place here," he said, pointing to the door through which he entered. "I'm a private."

MASONS MIGHT SUFFER

By The United Press

CAMP STONEMAN, Calif. — Owing to Hitler's hatred of the Masonic order, all soldiers leaving for overseas duty are advised by the Grand Master of the order to remove all rings, pins and cards that would show their membership in the order. As potential prisoners in Hitler's hands, they might be subjected to unusual punishment.

Playlet Is Presented at Rural Salem Church

Special to The Star

BEECH—The young people's Missionary Circle of the Rural Salem Evangelical church gave a playlet, "An Old Letter," Sunday night at the church. The cast included Dorothy Showers, Betty Winston, Patty Kraner and Cheryl Fisher.

The program was in charge of Gerald Klinefelter who led the devotions.

A piano trio was played by Geneva Albert, Leta Poling and Marguerite Loyer. A duet was sung by Geneva Albert and Marguerite Loyer. Benediction was pronounced by Rev. O. D. Myer, pastor.

Gerald Klinefelter returned today to Taylor University at Upland, Ind., where he will resume his studies for his third year.

Herbs As Aid in Cooking

VEGETABLES WITH OOMPH: Herbs make the difference.

By MRS. ALEXANDER GEORGE
Associated Press Food Editor

Herbs, used with care, will work wonders with your cooking. Herbs have plenty of appetite appeal. They give extra zip to sauces and stuffings for meats, fish, fowl and vegetables. New herbs and herb-flavored salads, dressings and vinegars are giving those two old seasoners, salt and pepper, a real run for popularity.

If you didn't put some of grandmother's herbs in a corner of your Victory garden, go herb-shopping at a food store. You will be entranced by the variety of these flavor-builders. Most of them are within reach of household budgets. Remember, however, to use them in moderation for subtle flavor.

Here are some herb seasoning tips:

1. Put basil and minced chives in stewed or stuffed tomatoes.

2. Add sage to string beans, tomato soup, cheese sauce for cauliflower, bread or rice stuffing for fish, meat or chicken.

3. Thyme steps up clam or lobster chowder, sauces for pork, veal and tongue and is very good blended with frizzled dried beef and browned eggplant slices.

4. Marjoram increases flavor in vegetable or fish salads, pork pie or browned pork chops, creamed or fried potatoes and escalloped leftover vegetables.

5. Rosemary does a lot for broiled or fried chicken, browned fish steaks, buttered spinach, lima beans or beets and meat pot pie or stew.

6. Dill spruces avocado salads, all kinds of beans, cheese and egg dishes.

7. Mint gives a "come-on" to carrots, peas, turnips, beets and cream soups.

8. A clove of garlic or pinch of garlic salt helps out vegetable salads, spaghetti and macaroni dishes, roast lamb and veal.

9. Minced chives and basil give a new flavor to escalloped corn, creamed mushrooms or creamed eggs, turning them into intriguing main dishes for point saving meals.

10. Mix chopped chives and thyme with sliced sucumbers, chill and serve with fish, chicken or veal.

When using dried herbs to flavor foods, crush them to a powder by rolling in the palms of the hands and add as any other seasoning. Another word of caution—a little goes a long way.

Chicken Helps To Save Meat Stamps

By BETSY NEWMAN

If you've one of those families which is large enough so your ration books rate a standing roast, go to it. For the small families a chicken now and then is relished by the best of men—and women.

MENU

Chicken Pot Pie, Boiled Potatoes, Corn Cut from Cob, Lettuce with French Dressing, Ice Cream, Cake, Coffee.

Chicken Pot Pie

One chicken, ¼ lb. pork, seasoning, water or stock, about 1 qt., dumplings.

Cut chicken into rather small pieces and dice pork. Lay them in a good-sized saucepan, cover with hot water or stock and bring to boiling point, keep closely covered, and simmer from 1 to 2 hours, depending upon the age of chicken. Season when about half done. Put in dumplings 30 minutes before serving time, keeping pan closely covered till they are done. Pile meat in center of platter, arrange dumplings around it. Be sure there is plenty of gravy.

Dumplings

One and one-half c. flour, 1½ tsps. baking powder, ½ tsp. salt, milk to mix soft dough.

Sift flour, salt and baking powder together twice; add milk (it will probably take a scant 2-3 cup), mix thoroughly but quickly, and drop by small tablespoonfuls into hot gravy.

Lions Club Program Given at Richwood

RICHWOOD — The Richwood Lions club, the largest small town Lions club in the state, observed guest night Friday night, Sept. 3, in the Richwood High school building. Preceding the dinner, prayer was offered by Aaron Durnell, who also led group singing. Following the dinner a program of music was furnished by the Lions club quartet composed of Mr. Durnell, Paul Miller, Perry Allen and H. R. Fisher with Mrs. Durnell accompanist, and the following musical program, all two-piano numbers: Mrs. Carrie Jacobs and Mrs. Margery Sanders, "Valse Iansuse" and "Waterbugs"; Mrs. Jacobs, Mrs. Sanders, Mrs. Louise Laymon and Mrs. Gladys Winter, "American Heroes" and "Sparklets," "Parade of the Wooden Soldiers," by Mrs. Laymon and Mrs. Winter; "Witches Flights" by Mrs. Jacobs, Mrs. Sanders, Mrs. Winters and Mrs. Laymon, and "March Melody" by Mrs. Sanders and Mrs. Laymon.

Six new members were received into the club and keys were presented by Secretary-Treasurer K. D. Kyle to H. R. Fisher, Robert Cheney and William Russell Sturgis Cheney introduced the guest speaker, Clarence J. Brown, congressman of the Seventh district of Ohio, who told about his observation in a recent trip to Canada. Dinner was served to about 150 members and guests by women of the First Baptist church.

Old-Timers Do What Others Failed To Do, They Win from Universal Cooler Team 8 to 7

Shorty Richards Pounds Triple in 9th with Bases Loaded.

Lincoln park fan, 300 of them, Universal finished on top after rubbed their eyes in amazement and disbelief about 8:25 last night. But what they had just witnessed was a reality. The Old-Timers under the expert guidance of John Clark, the oldest old-timer of them all, had done what the league All-Stars and most of the regular loop teams had failed to accomplish — beat Universal Cooler.

Unbelievable as it may seem, the final score after eight and two-thirds innings of play was Old-Timers 8, Universal Cooler 7.

The old boys racked up 13 hits to Cooler's magnificant four.

'Shorty' Richards, one of the promoters of the plan to revive softball here, delivered a banging triple to right center field in the bottom half of the ninth with the bases loaded to bring the vets their one-run triumph.

How Richards could see the ball was in itself a wonder. For it was next to pitch-black at the North Side field when the short man pounded a Bill Everly pitch for an unadulterated three-bagger. One was out at the time and Cooler held a 7 to 5 lead, gained on unearned runs in the first of the ninth.

Canteen Gets $62.75

The Marion Canteen to which all the proceeds from last night's special feature softball contest went, came out $62.75 to the good. The crowd was with the Old-Times, who at times acted much sprier and spirited than their younger opponents. Lincoln park's field, a much-played diamond within the past month, never has been the scene of such cheering all season, which has been marked by some high-grade games.

John Clark, dean of Marion softballers, and one of the originators of the game here, finally saw his desire come true to manage a team which defeated Cooler. Twice he skippered his Epworth Methodist team against the Iceers in the Little World Series but to no avail. Universal went on to cop the city softball crown. Last week he tried again with his All-Star team, which every one said couldn't lose to the Cooleriles, but

The Old-Timers must have been consumed with a highly-seasoned competitive spirit last night for fans could not see what other factor was more outstanding in their victory. Surely constant practicing was not for some of the Old-Timers did not drill until an hour or so before game time last night.

Somehow the "old" guard stuck it out through the entire nine innings. At least one of the older members of the "Graybeard" squad was surprised when he played the whole game. He remarked in an early stage of the game, "It's just the fifth inning and I hope it doesn't go much longer. I'm pooed out now."

Schwaderer Gets Credit

Dale Schwaderer was credited with the win although Woodrow "Woody" Walters turned in a brilliant mound performance for the Old-Timers. Schwaderer was found for three hits, including a homer by losing pitcher Bill Everly of Cooler, while Walters was touched for only one safety, a blooping single by Joe Darnell of Universal in the first inning.

Anspaugh, old-timing right fielder, opened the momentous ninth frame with a single and went to second on a wild pitch. Corrigan then "killed" Anspaugh with a ground ball to Shortstop Atkinson, who threw to Darnell at third. Pitcher Dale Schwaderer then smashed his second hit, a single, advancing Corrigan to second. Gar Reams, second baseman for the Old-Timers, lined a single, which loaded the sacks, affording

Another Baseball Season Soon To Pass Without No-Hitter

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The major leagues are approaching the end of their second baseball season without a no-hit pitching performance, perhaps proving that as much luck as skill enters into such classics.

There is still time for some hurler to ride into the grooves, but few of the 100-plus no-hitters in big league history have come this late in the season.

Two pitchers have come within one out of ringing the gong this year.

The latest is Whitlow Wyatt of the Brooklyn Dodgers, who never has pitched a no-hitter, but who yesterday barely missed this goal for the fourth time in his major league career.

He stopped the Boston Braves, 3-0 for his seventh straight success and 11th of the season, but a single to right field in the first inning by Charley Workman kept Wyatt from entering the hallowed hall of pitching fame.

Lady Luck really gave him the brushoff in 1932 and again two years ago. In the first case he was pitching for the Chicago White Sox against the St. Louis Browns and had a no-hitter with two out in the ninth inning until Ted Gullic spoiled it with a single.

In 1941 he had a perfect game, no hits and no runner reaching first base, with one out in the ninth at Boston only to have the Braves wreck it with two hits. Last year a homer by Johnny Mize kept him from a no-hitter against the Giants.

Besides the contest at Brooklyn, only two other games were on the program yesterday, both in the National league.

The St. Louis Cardinals handed Rip Sewell, Pittsburgh's 20-game winner, his eighth defeat 5-1 with Stan Musial hitting two homers.

A homer by Babe Dahlgren, his fifth of the year, provided the winning margin for the Philadelphia Phillies 3-2 triumph over the New York Giants. Ace Adams made his 62nd relief appearance for the Giants for a record.

Tribe and Tigers Meet To Clean UP Second Place Issue

By The Associated Press

DETROIT, Sept. 9 — Cleveland's Indians engage the Detroit Tigers in a double header today, opening a six-game series which should clarify the three-team scramble for second place in the American league.

The Tigers are only one-half game behind the Tribe, which holds the runner-up spot over Washington by a single percentage point.

Al Smith and Allie Reynolds are Redskin mound nominees against Virgil (Fireball) Trucks and Hal White. Smith is after his 15th victory, which would equal his best mark in the majors.

Pat Seerey, 20-year-old utility outfielder, reports the Indians today after being rejected for military service by his Little Rock, Ark., draft board, and Buddy Rosar is expected to return to his catching duties. Rosar has been out of action since his right hand was bruised by a foul tip in a game against the Chicago White Sox last Sunday.

LaCrosse, Reeder Head Mat Program Tonight

Gil LaCrosse, Toledo welder, and Jack Reeder will clash in the main event of tonight's weekly wrestling program at the Armory arena.

In one of two 45-minute semi-final matches arranged by Promoter Les Fishbaugh are Walter Roxy of Detroit, who made his debut before local fans a week ago, and Rufus Jones, Gotham Negro. In the other event Earl Malone of Chicago will make his first appearance here in a try against Carl (the count) Von Lehman.

Crisler Hopes They Will Quit Calling Michigan Dream Team

By The Associated Press

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Sept. 9—Fritz Crisler is cagy enough to know that he has two strikes on him if opponents keep calling Michigan a dream team. Crisler says emphatically that his squad isn't that good, particularly after the loss of its great guard, Julius Franks.

Removal of Franks, 190-pound Negro star, from this football season because of illness is really something to deflate any coach. Aside from being Michigan's steadiest performer last season, Franks is generally credited with providing the turning point of the 1942 contest of Notre Dame with a tooth-rattling tackle that gave the Wolverines a third period fumble and touchdown.

Moreover, his loss leaves Michigan with experienced talent only at center, where Mervin Pregulman and Fred Negus, the latter from Wisconsin, are top performers.

"We've no ends, tackles or guards with much experience," moans Crisler, "and the best backs in the world can't go any place unless they get past the line of scrimmage."

The backs? Crisler's eyes light up on that subject. If he doesn't have a dream team he most certainly has a dream backfield.

Holdovers from the 1942 Michigan backfield are Capt. Paul White and Bob Wiese. Marine and Navy trainees on the campus include Bill Daley, the one-man team from Minnesota, and Elroy (Crazy Legs) Hirsch and Jack Wink of Wisconsin's western conference runnerup.

Hirsch is lined up for the tailback spot once occupied by Michigan's "Terrible Tommies," Harmon and Kuzma. White will be at the other halfback, with Daley or Wiese at fullback. Wink currently is on the injured list, and Wiese is being groomed at the quarterback job, too.

With this type of running power, Michigan may gain its first Big Ten title under Crisler. It also may be the year for the Wolverines to win back the coveted little brown jug from Minnesota, although a Gopher, Daley, may have to do it.

That would nevertheless be sweet for Crisler, one-time Minnesota coach, who has lost five straight games to the Gophers.

Despite large scale importations of Navy and Marine talent, Michigan's attack will follow closely the Crisler plan of a single wing-back formation with plenty of spinners and a constant effort at deception. Even with a green line, the Wolverines will be tough.

Bucyrus Redmen With Ten Lettermen Back Look For Better Season Than Last Year

By CHARLES ELLIOTT

While not as rosy and successful a season is prophesied for the Bucyrus High school grid men as for their fellow countians and NCO rivals, the Galion Orangemen, yet the Redmen and their coach forecast a decidedly better record this year than in 1942.

Head Coach Nick Wasyluk of the Bucyrus team, although he is forced to tutor the Redmen alone as was the case last season, anticipates a "favorable" year for his squad, which numbers a mere 25 in all.

Just what is meant by the favorable is not entirely understood but certainly it means a much better season than in 1942, when the Bucyrus boys were unable to win a single game but tied three opponents. Six losses were posted on the Redmen's 1942 record board.

The head guy around the Bucyrus home grounds said in regard to the comparison of this year's team with the 1942 edition, "This year's team will do better than last year's team because we have seven seniors in the starting line and with 10 lettermen returning."

Line His Meal Ticket

Thus, Coach Wasyluk definitely indicates that he thinks the Bucyrus line will be his "meal ticket" this year. Five lettermen were rudely snatched away from the Bucyrus school since last season by that genial gent known as Mr. Draft. And, what's more, all these five khaki-wearers were linemen—two ends, two tackles, and a guard.

"What a cause for complete discouragement on the part of Coach Wasyluk," many fans might remark. However, he is not bemoaning his bad fortunes, which is not too bad when you remember that hundreds of high school as well as collegiate coaches throughout the nation have been dealt the same type of blow by Uncle Sam.

Practical Nick is going to make the best with what he has—which includes some potentially very helpful and productive material. An even 40 per cent of the Redmen squad are lettermen and this is only one shy of filling out a starting lineup.

Three of these lettermen, Keith Clayton, Herman Rittenour, and [illegible] were starting [illegible] last season. These are [illegible] experienced [illegible] Coach Wasyluk [illegible] a quarterback, fullback and [illegible] left guard and [illegible] halfback. Another veteran as a dangerous runner and [illegible] handy-man [illegible] is [illegible] season in this [illegible] and especially [illegible] teams.

All [illegible] these dependables are [illegible] the reins by [illegible]

Not Extra Heavy

The Bucyrus team will average [illegible] pounds [illegible] Wasyluk [illegible] a [illegible]-man squad [illegible] a letterman-a-grade [illegible] of speed and [illegible] very well form the [illegible] nucleus of [illegible] a conference [illegible] something a Bucyrus team hasn't done since 1935. That year [illegible] been the only season in NCO grid history that a Redmen team has won undisputed possession of the league title. In 1940, the Redmen [illegible] in a three-way [illegible] with Marion Harding and Galion for first place.

Which brings to mind the touchest [illegible] of the Redmen this season. Wasyluk replied, "They're [illegible] It would. This observation adds more than ever to the growing belief that this year's NCO race will be one of the most interesting in many moons.

The last occasion a Bucyrus team defeated Harding High was in 1940, Wasyluk's first year as head man with the Bucyrans. The Presidents made the 17-mile journey to Bucyrus, with great confidence, but were downcast high schoolers when they left the field, victims of a 16 to 6 upset.

Last season, Harding thumped the Redmen in another game at Lane field, 26 to 0.

Has No Assistants

Wasyluk seems to have a doubly difficult assignment to carry out this year when you see that he is the only member of the Bucyrus coaching staff. He worked alone last year, also.

He was a class mate of Vic Dorris, head Harding High coach, at Ohio State during the '30s when the Buckeyes were under the Francis Schmidt regime. Dorris was an outstanding [illegible] performer for the Bucks.

The Redmen will meet [illegible] teams [illegible] this season. Sept. 17—Tiffin Columbian [illegible] Sept. 24—Upper Sandusky [illegible] Oct. 1—Mt. Vernon away; Oct. 8—Galion at home; Oct. 22—[illegible], away; Oct. 29—Shelby, at home; Nov. 5—Marion Harding away.

No one was on base at the time of the circuit drive, which fell in deep-left field, well beyond the reach of fielders Corrigan and Niemeyer. A four-bagger by Bigford in the second game of the Little World Series was the last homer at the North Side park.

Drives in Five Runs

Richards was indeed the siege gun of the night, driving in five runs. In the seventh inning, he doubled to score Schwaderer from second base. The Old-Timers pitcher himself had two-baggered to arrive at the half-way point.

In the Old-Timers fifth two runs were marked up. Benny Crabtree, pinch-hitter for Walters in the fifth, scored the first when he was forced in from third on an Everly walk. Bobby Zahn, starting second-baseman for the Old-Timers, marked up the second when he hoofed it home on a fielder's choice.

Johnny Marshall, Old-Timers' third baseman for the entire nine innings, drove in Jerry Niemeyer, center fielder, in the fourth inning on a single.

Elmer Smith, promoter of the Old-Timers team, who although he did not serve in the game last night, nevertheless gave plenty of moral support from the sidelines.

Men's All-Star League Inaugurates Bowling Season in Marion.

The 35-week Marion league bowling season for 1943 and 1944 was launched at the Marion Recreation Center Tuesday night when the eight-team Men's All-Star loop toppled the maples in a two-hour session.

The Ladies' All-Star league followed last night with its season opening at the Marion lanes on South Prospect street. Craftsman circuit rollers are scheduled to toe the line tonight.

The Palace Recreation Center season was set to get under way last night with the six-team Universal Cooler Ladies' loop and the 12-squad Osgood kegling. Tonight at the Palace plant on West Center street, the Cooler Corporation's Men's organization and the Huber loop, both composed of 12 teams, will bowl.

The Marion Building Supply quintet and the Marion Auto Finance five were the only two outfits among the All-Star teams to post three victories without a defeat in the opening league meeting Tuesday night.

Leo Oberlander, member of the Building Supply team, rolled high single game among All-Star bowlers with 216. Teammate "Happy" Applegett ran second with 210. Other above 200 games racked up by All-Star bowlers were Thomas of Universal Cooler with 200, R. Snyder of Schaffner-Denzer 200, and Art Yazel of the Denzer team 203.

Luse of the Auto Finance squad recorded leading three-game series with 577, including a single mark of 199.

The complete schedule of league bowling at the Palace lanes as announced by Manager James Lloyd is as follows:

Monday nights, starting next week: Marion Reserve Power league, eight teams, at 6:15 p. m.; Ladies' All-Star league, 10 teams, at 8:30 p. m.

Tuesday nights, starting next week: Marion Steam Shovel League, 12 teams, 7 p. m.; U. S. Rubber league, 10 teams, at 9 p. m.

Wednesday nights, started last night: Osgood league, 12 teams, at 7 p. m.; Universal Cooler Ladies' league, six teams, at 9 p. m.

Thursday nights, starting tonight: Universal Cooler Men's league, 12 teams, at 7 p. m.; Huber league, 12 teams, at 9 p. m.

Friday nights, starting tomorrow night: U. S. Rubber league, 12 teams, at 6:30 p. m.; Commercial league, 10 teams, at 9 p. m.

Following are the results of Tuesday night bowling in the Men's All-Star league at the Marion alleys:

Milwaukee Brewers Take One Game Lead

By The Associated Press

Eastern division rivals continued to slap away at the American Association pennant aspirations of Indianapolis and Columbus last night. As a result the Milwaukee Brewers today had a one game lead.

The Brewers helped their cause by defeating Kansas City in both ends of a doubleheader, 7-4 and 1-0.

Indianapolis stumbled before Louisville in the first games of a doubleheader, 4-3, but won the nightcap, 6-3, behind Jim Trexler. The even break dropped the Indians a full game behind Milwaukee.

Columbus also fell farther behind in splitting even with Toledo. The Mudhens took the first of a double bill, 7-2, but Columbus won 6-0 in the finale.

The Minneapolis-St. Paul doubleheader was postponed.

151 Enroll in Galion Parochial Schools

Special to The Star

GALION, Sept. 9—An enrollment of 151 was reported for Galion's two parochial schools, St. Patrick's and St. Joseph's which opened Tuesday of this week.

At St. Patrick's school, there were 69 pupils answering to roll call, an increase of 14 over last year. Sister Mary Eugene and Sister Mary of Calvary are back this year as teachers for the eight grades of the school. Music lessons and the direction of the children's choir will be under Sister Mary Eugene.

The enrollment at St. Joseph's school was increased from 73 to 82 this year. The first four grades of the school are taught by Sister Mechtild who will also teach music and direct the children's choir. Mother Superior Marie Gotthardа will teach grades five, six, seven and eight.

PRACTICAL nurse for hospital ward at Marion County Home. Good wages with complete maintenance. Good opportunity for middle-aged or elderly lady without a home. Dial 2535.

IF
by The Marion Star Want Ad Dept.
if you could see the people that come in and wait to see the first copies off the press, hoping to get an apartment or room.
if you could see their disappointment when there isn't enough to go around.
if you had a sleeping room, light housekeeping room or apartment, you would advertise it immediately, thereby taking the ifs out of
if
I could only find a room.
That's the situation . . . now

PEACE STOCKS ON UP GRADE

Selling Dries Up and Armament Group Also Makes Recoveries.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Sept. 9 — Peace stocks still were buoyed by the Italian surrender in today's market but selling dried up in the armament groups and a number of yesterday's stumblers negotiated good recoveries.

Mixed trends ruled at the start. Bidding then expanded and, near the fourth hour, gains of fractions to a point or so were in the majority. Dealings quickened at intervals with volume exceeding that of the previous most active session in a month.

Prominent on the upside were International Telephone, Pepsi-Cola, Radio Corp., American Power & Light Preferreds, U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, General Motors, Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, Santa Fe, Consolidated Edison, Columbia Gas, Public Service of N. J. and Westinghouse. Douglas Aircraft wavered, along with United Aircraft, American Telephone, General Electric, Sears Roebuck and Phelps Dodge.

GRAINS PUSH HIGHER IN STRONG MARKET

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Sept. 9—Natural influences pushed grain prices forward today in a strong but somewhat hesitant market as traders began to discount their momentary nervousness over the sensational foreign developments.

Gains reached at least a cent at times, with oats a leader on local buying and talk of active demand for the cash grain. Winnipeg wheat advances reached more than two cents at one time. As has been the rule in recent sessions here—excluding yesterday's momentary break—there was little pressure on the market.

Treasury Report

Pitfalls of Love

By ADELE GARRISON

I FROWNED involuntarily as I put up the receiver, and my father spoke quickly.

"What went wrong?" he asked.

"It was really nothing, I suppose," I said, "but I wish Mary had not been quite so effusive, with possible listeners on the line."

"What did she say?" he queried.

I repeated Mary's words, and his own brows drew together, then relaxed.

"Luckily, everybody who has any acquaintance with Mary is used to her extravagant speech," he said, and my own qualms died, as I rose from my chair in obedience to my father's evident impatience.

Arrive at Apartment

It was less than the five minutes I had mentioned, when we came to the door of the Noel Veritzen apartment. Noel opened the door, and when we had entered, and he had closed the door after us, Mary sprang up from the couch where she had been reclining with an afghan drawn over her in her clever but tedious faking of a badly sprained ankle.

"Is the night latch on, Noel?" she asked, even before she had greeted us. "I want to have time to get myself artistically invalided if anybody else rounds."

"Very much so," her husband told her, and then she came forward to us with outstretched hands.

"Welcome to the old home town!" she said. "But before you tell me the reason for your visit, how about a spot of luncheon for all of us? I'm nearly starved."

I looked at my father and he spoke quickly.

"Yes, that will be all right, for you and Mary can go into the bedroom to discuss the real issue at hand, and we can bring them up to date on what has happened while the order is being filled."

"Here's a luncheon menu," Mary said, picking it up from the table and handing it to me, while she poised a pencil over a piece of paper. "Just give me your orders. I'll write them down and then Noel can telephone them, if Aunt Madge needs me."

We made short work of the order, naming our preference quickly. Only Ronald said, "I don't want any luncheon," but my father settled that by saying firmly: "Order some orange juice, scrambled eggs, toast and coffee for him," and then said sternly to the boy: "the first essential in this search for Marion is to keep up your strength. Do not forget that again."

"All right, sir, I won't," Ronald answered faintly, and my father nodded. Then, as Noel took the memorandum from Mary's hand and started for the telephone, my father looked at Mary and me.

"It isn't necessary for the rest of us to see that paper until afterward," he said. "Better get on with it."

I followed Mary forthwith into the bedroom, and put a query as soon as the door was closed.

"Is that code book you and Marion used where you can get it quickly?"

"It's in a locked strong box in my bureau drawer under my lingerie," she said, "and nobody ever touched that drawer but me. I'll get it right away. But tell me quickly, you've heard from Mary?"

"Yes—and no," I replied. "Get the book, and then I'll tell you what has happened."

She brought the familiar little black book from her bureau drawer, and then, as quickly as I could, I told her of Ronald's glimpse of Marion, and of the queer story of the waiter, Crump, who had picked up the note the obviously disguised girl at the restaurant had dropped for him.

"What a resourceful darling she is!" Mary exclaimed, and then I held out the note Marion had put inside the one she had written for the waiter's perusal.

"If you can't make sense of this, nobody can," I said.

Reads the Note

She took up the note and read it attentively, while with my carefully trained memory I went over the words with her, visualizing them as if I were looking over her shoulder.

"Deer Auntie Madge," the note began.

"I'm writing this so you can tell my mother that she don't need to worry over me. Where I am, the people are very nice and kind to me. I feel so safe. I know you are thinking of me as I am thinking of you, and I'll come to see you just as soon as I can. Tell Mary to take care of my silver cross and wear it for me. Also, my gold bracelet, and my opal ring and the amber necklace my grandmother gave me. Always yours, Marion."

YOUR HEALTH

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

Immunities of Child

I REPEAT I am writing these articles about the prevention of the contagious diseases, especially those of childhood, at this time of year as I always have because it is just at this time of year that one stands in his journey through life is exposed to a new set of dangers. The danger is the danger of contact with many new human beings coming from different households and families—and the contacts occur exactly now because for the first time the child goes to school and by ten or twenty times enlarges his circle of acquaintances.

Did you ever stop to think that while you frequently hear some neighborhood news, such as "the public school has been closed on account of an epidemic of measles," you never hear, "the Atlas Plant has been closed down on account of an epidemic of measles." Well, you say, that's easy—the Atlas Plant has all adult workers and adults don't get measles. Why not? Well, adults don't get measles because they have already had them. Exactly, but you take a group of country people who come up and enter the Atlas Plant—those who have lived in the great open spaces and never been close to many people at a time—and you will have plenty of measles.

This illustrates a fundamental biological fact of enormous practical importance. We humans are born into a world full of germs that can kill us off in short order. They are everywhere and the only protection we have against them is to acquire immunity, and lots of it, to lots of them. This the body does very cleverly and the natural way it does it is by contact immunity—in other words, by brushing up against plenty of people we take in a few of their germs and these vaccinate us so that we have natural immunity. When we are twenty years old we can go anywhere safely—that is, anywhere close to home where we have acquired our immunity. When we begin to wander we meet strange germs and are likely to get into trouble.

One of the great triumphs of modern medicine is that it has been able to imitate this method of Nature and by vaccines produce acquired immunity.

It is too bad we have no vaccine that works against measles, because in spite of the fact that you may regard it as a mild disease it may be far from that and it is so universally contagious that it is the cause of much disability and time out. The only thing to do, in my opinion, is to have an attack when you are about five or six.

I do not feel yet like insisting on urging scarlet fever vaccine on everybody. It seems to protect pretty well, but not so completely as one would wish. Of late, scarlet fever is such a mild and rare disease as to be negligible. The malignant scarlet fever of thirty-five years ago, with all its complications, is a thing of the past.

So I name an age when scarlet fever vaccine should be administered. In the face of a serious neighborhood epidemic it should be given the children who may be exposed. It will protect about 80 per cent of them.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

J. W.: What is the meaning of first degree and second degree burns? Which is the more serious?

Answer: Burns are classified on the basis of how deep they go, how much skin and underlying tissue they destroy. The more they destroy the more serious they are, so a second degree burn is more serious than a first degree burn.

The Stars Say—

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

For Friday, Sept. 10

ACCORDING TO THE lunar transits this day may have many trivial or petty difficulties or perplexities, which may bring discord into the orderly turn of events in both business and purely personal relations. However, the powers of diplomacy, tact and compromise are strongly accented. Large affairs as well as minor anxieties may be satisfactorily composed by use of these inner promptings.

Those whose birthday it is are likely to find themselves beset by a series of trifling, perplexing or aggravating circumstances, affecting their business as well as private life.

A child born on this day will be blessed with a high order of creative talents and traits of character, enabling it to enjoy a pleasant and profitable career, perhaps in some novel or unusual channel. Secret undercurrents rule its life.
